OFF THE TRACKS. Four of five train cars being pulled by three engine units operated by the Terminal Railroad Association derailed shortly after 3:30 a.m. Friday, damaging trucks and partially blocking the 19th Street rail crossing. In the left foreground is the car blocking part of the street. Another derailed car was pulled south of the crossing to allow one-way traffic through. The derailment happened on Norfolk and Western Railway Co. tracks, seen in this view looking north from the east side of the crossing. N&W crews arrived at the scene shortly before 8 a.m. to begin clean-up operations. (Press-Record Photo)

Carter agent to speak here on Thursday

There is no White House "rose garden" in Illinois, so President Jimmy Carter won't be showing up in this state prior to the pivotal March 18 primary election.

But the president—remaining in Washington due to the continuing problem of Americans held hostage in Iran—wants very much to win Illinois as part of his drive for re-nomination. So surrogates will be here in abundance.

Secretary Moon Landrieu of the U.S. Housing and Urban Development Department will speak here at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at a Democratic Party rally for Pres. Carter.

Location of the rally will be the Madison Memorial Center, Seventh Street and Lee Avenue, Madison.

Hosting Sec. Landrieu, a former New Orleans mayor, will be Christ Costoff, a Madison alderman and chairman of the Madison County Democratic Central Committee.

In addition to the public gathering, the Cabinet member will confer earlier with mayors of this region.

Presidential Press Secretary Jody Powell said last week that while no personal appearances by the chief executive are expected, an aggressive campaign will be waged for Illinois delegates to the national nominating convention at New York City.

Powell stressed his belief that citizens want the president "on the job" during the Iranian crisis. This approach includes numerous telephone calls to primary states by Mr. Carter. With the president unavailable, over 500 supporters attended a $100-a-plate fund-raising buffet at Springfield. Country music was featured, and speakers were Powell and Transportation Secretary Neil Goldschmidt.

Later, about 100 paid $500 each at a smaller gathering at the same hotel.

Goldschmidt voiced his belief that the federal government is unlikely to contribute funds to aid construction of a proposed cargo airport at Columbia-Waterloo.

Pyramid craze returns here after a generation

Quad-Cityans have been winning—and are about to lose—large sums of money in the latest pyramid craze, a revival of a scheme discredited here and elsewhere a generation ago.

It was learned during the weekend that the pyramid idea, flourishing in January in St. Louis and St. Louis County, moved into the Belleville area in late February and has entangled some local residents in its web in early March.

Other areas of activity include

Area weather outlook

Increasing cloudiness, windy and warmer today with high in 40s. Cloudy and warmer, chance of rain tonight with low in mid 30s. Probability of rain and milder Tuesday, high in mid 40s. The get-rich-quick scheme falls apart of its own weight because the doubting or multiplying procedure that it utilizes quickly exhausts the number of new patrons that can be signed up, authorities say. "There just aren't enough people in the world to keep it going," they comment.

More than 30 years ago, pyramiding lured numerous persons here and was outlawed because it utilized the mail. Current versions involve much larger sums and feature direct contact rather than letters.

With the courts slow to label the activity as illegal gambling or fraud, some opportunists have been calling it a business venture: they say a $1,000 "investment" can produce profits of many thousands of dollars for the individual who gets in on the pyramid during its early rounds.

What is often left unsaid is that large numbers of persons are going to lose all of the money they contribute, and others will fail to profit.

Estimates show that Belleville area residents may already have paid nearly $1 million in the last two weeks in their greed and haste to capitalize on the scheme.

The current craze has been traced to the Kansas City area and also has spread to Indiana, Ohio and Massachusetts.

Snow, cold wave—woman is found frozen to death

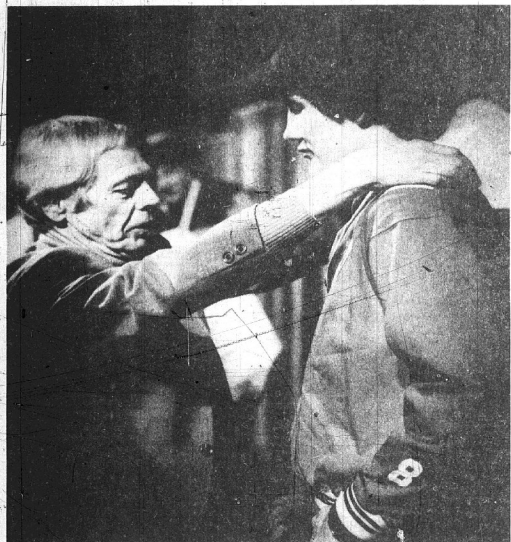

Mrs. Maggie A. Milton, 82, of 2415 Anchorage Homes, mother of Madison County Board Member Herbert E. Milton Jr. and Pepsi Cola Co. Alton Bottling Co. Vice-President Walter C. Milton Sr., was found without signs of life lying in the snow outside her apartment early Sunday morning by another son, James Milton. She is believed to have frozen or suffered a heart attack; a bitter cold wave arrived here during the weekend.

He had gone to his mother's home each morning to assist her with medication and found the rear door open. He followed footprints in the snow

Rink area is defended

The area around the Stopkotte roller rink in the 1800 block of Cleveland Boulevard, mentioned in a news article last week, is being kept crime-free by diligent efforts of police and the rink management, officials said during the weekend. A fight near 18th Street did not occur at the rink nor did it involve any

Suit challenges official

David Partney is announcing that, as a member of the Board of Education of Granite City and as a voter, he has filed a lawsuit seeking to determine the status of the president of the board, Donald Stucke.

Partney noted that he has frequently raised the issue publicly of a board member's wife being a school employee.

"Although the board's attorney has cited authority to keep Mr. Stucke on the board, there are opposing cases. The issue has never been resolved by the Supreme Court of Illinois," Partney said.

"His wife is an employee of the school district," the lawsuit relies on an existing state statute which forbids an interest in contracts, directly or indirectly, by a member of the school board.

"In a similar case in Lee County, the court held that a conflict existed for two school board members."

"At a meeting of school officials, I was advised that ultimately the assertion that a conflict exists should and will be sustained."

Partney-voiced his intention to pursue the matter to the Supreme Court, if necessary. His attorney is Leon Scroggins.

Stucke was among three incumbent board members filing Feb. 27 for reelection April 12.

He was appointed to the non-salaried board post about a month after his wife, Cecelia, was hired as a secretary July 10, 1967. She is an attendance clerk.

After sentencing

FORMER SHERIFF John Maeras is shown leaving the federal court building in Alton on Thursday after being sentenced to 15 years in prison for his Feb. 25, 1979, conviction on a variety of offenses related to allegations of racketeering. The Madisonian continues to stress his innocence, and Attorney Bruce Cook (pictured wearing a light topcoat) filed an immediate notice of appeal of the sentencing. Doctors have certified that Maeras has terminal cancer.

Many elderly poor live alone in county

The Madison County Local Impact Committee last week met on "Long-Term Care Health Services in Madison County." This was the first in a series of meetings concerning health services that the committee will hold in the coming months. Milton Morris, chairman of the committee, said it will review mental health services in March, Medicaid in April, acute care services in May, and primary care in June.

Tom Kalmbach, planning associate for the Greater St. Louis Health Systems Agency, said, "Madison County is unique within the metropolitan area because it has a very large elderly population living alone, as well as a large elderly population living in poverty."

"In 1970, there were 5,728 elderly living alone in poverty, which means that there is a substantial population in the county at high risk of needing long-term care, and very susceptible to institutionalization."

"Given the fact that there is a large population at risk of needing long-term care services, and that there are apparently adequate numbers of nursing home beds, the county is in a unique position to meet many of its long-term care service needs through expanded development of non-institutional services."

Many options were discussed at the impact committee meeting, including the development of a community care organization, information and referral networks, hospices, and reimbursement aid for elderly meal sites.

The committee chose to compile an inventory of health service agencies in Madison County. In a related matter, several members raised concern over a proposed expansion program at Wood River Township Hospital.

The Local Impact Committee will, at a future date to be announced, review a summary of the project prepared by the staff of the Health Systems Agency, and invite hospital representatives to the meeting to answer questions. The Madison County Local Impact Committee contacts are Milton Morris at 452-5353 and Joe Mueller at 434-241-5810.

Circle banquet plans discussed

The Lydia Circle of Nameoki United Methodist Church held its February meeting in the home of Marie Long.

After the hostess, served dessert, the meeting was opened by President Mary Bailey. New prayer partners were drawn for the next three months.

Members filled out questionnaires for the Health Fair which will be held April 23-26.

The mother-daughter banquet will be a bridal pageant on May 12 at 7:30 p.m., it was announced. Gladys Russell read an article entitled "To Remember Me," which dealt with donating parts of the body after death. She also gave devotions.

Dorothy Wallace closed the meeting with a poem and a prayer.

Others in attendance were Mildred Hess, Marie Isenburgh, Helen Metcalf, Vergie Spaulding, Effie Vernick, Lucille Webb and a guest, Dorothy Sinnott.

The Cost of Illness Was Always High

A few years ago, many ills meant repeated medical expenses, long and costly convalescence, and protracted loss of income.

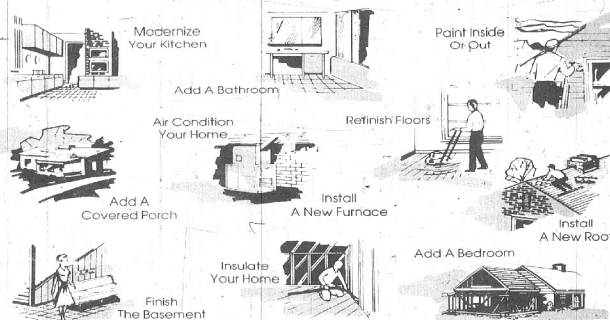

Today, these ills are quickly cured with potent drugs costing only pennies a dose. Truly, so little money never bought so much cure as it does in today's prescribed medicines. This is the "miracle" of the miracle drugs.

World Day of Prayer at Bethel AME Church

"Responsible Freedom" is the theme for World Day of Prayer scheduled for Friday, March 7, at Bethel AME Church, 1085 Market St. Venice. Registration begins at 9:15 a.m. and a nursery will be available. Featured speaker will be Mrs. Raquel Sarasa of Granite City, who will speak on her escape from Cuba, to freedom in the United States.

The day-long observance is under the auspices of Quad-City Church Women United, with Mrs. Marilyn Arne and Mrs. Joan Roberts serving as co-chairmen. Their committee includes Mary Ann Svedia, Mary Hooks, Mickey Strack, Mrs. Ellen Ehler, Ola Jones and Joyce Toussaint.

They have been actively working during the past month to bring forth a program that can bring all closer to understanding Responsible Freedom.

The committee extends an invitation to all women in the Quad-City area to attend the services. Guest speaker, Mrs. Raquel Sarasa, was not born in the United States and had to sacrifice much for her freedom. At the time she left Cuba 18 years ago, her husband and two children were already in America. The government had confiscated her passport, but she felt she had to leave. So, along with 42 others, she boarded a fishing boat and in the middle of the night secretly sailed away from her native country. At 4 p.m. the next day the refugees were picked up by an American oil tanker. The ships captain allowed her to send a cable which she still has — to tell her family she was safe and on her way to Miami. Neither of them spoke much English but through religious organizations helping Cuban people find jobs according to their backgrounds, Mrs. Sarasa found her way to Granite City. Mrs. Sarasa, a pharmaceutical graduate of Havana University, was offered a job at St. Elizabeth Hospital as a staff pharmacist. So began their new lives in America. Many struggles were ahead of them but they were free. Mrs. Sarasa knows much of light and sacrifice having her speak for World Day of Prayer should be quite an experience, the committee added.

Women of this country have been celebrating a national day of prayer since 1887. This year, people in more than 150 countries and islands around the world will gather in prayerful consideration of "Responsible Freedom." Church Women United is the official sponsor of World Day of Prayer in the United States.

The Testamentary Trust

A testamentary trust is one which is created by a person in his will and comes into existence only at his death. In this respect it differs from a "living" trust, which is created by agreement, and becomes immediately effective. Despite the great increase in the use of living trusts during recent years, the will is still the basic estate-planning instrument, and trusts created by will are still the most common trust vehicles.

Some benefits.

1. Family protection. The basic desire to provide for the support and education of a wife and children can best be achieved by means of a trust which authorizes the trustee to utilize both the income and principal for these purposes. If property is left outright to a wife or children, they are free to use or dispose of it (if they are of age) as they wish. Due to inexperience, naiveté in financial matters, or improvidence, they might lose their share in unwise investments, or dissipate it. If any of the children are minors, the Court will appoint legal guardians to administer their shares, and guardianship proceedings are often burdensome and expensive.

2. Investment supervision. By selecting a trustee skilled in handling investments, the creator of the trust can be reasonably assured that his property will be prudently invested under all kinds of economic conditions, and thus conserved for the benefit of his family.

3. Tax savings. Estate tax savings can be achieved not only by taking advantage of the marital deduction allowed under the Federal Estate Tax law, but also by avoiding an unnecessary second tax in the surviving spouse's estate. The trust device permits the spouse to enjoy the economic benefits of the property during her lifetime without having it included in her estate for Federal Estate Tax purposes. Death tax savings can also be achieved by similarly avoiding the inclusion of the property in the taxable estates of children, even though they may enjoy its benefits for life. Income taxes of the beneficiaries also can be minimized by providing for "sprinkling" of income among members of the family group, as needed, for support, education, etc., thus permitting the holding back of income from high income beneficiaries and causing it to be taxed in the lower tax bracket of the trust or low income beneficiary.

What is a trust? We hope we've stripped some of the mystery from this not-so-simple question. If you should have additional questions, talk to your attorney and both of you are invited to visit us. We'll be glad to help.

And please remember: These short articles are offered only as a non-technical guideline to the question of trusts. They are not intended to be used as legal advice. That is the job of your own attorney.

Northgate Industrial Park access roads being planned

Granite City and Illinois Power Co. have officially applied to the state Department of Transportation to break the curb along Route 3 and install access roads for the proposed Northgate Industrial Park on the west side of Route 3 across from St. Thomas Road.

Lee Komen, attorney for Illinois Power, told the City Council last week there are no definite contracts, yet, for an industry in the park, but said there has been interest in some parts of the property. He said nothing had been formalized on an industry in the park, even though Pre-Coat Metals, a division of Chromalloy American Corp., has obtained a building permit for the foundation of a $3,000,000 plant for the industrial park. Komen said details still have to be worked out concerning streets, sewers, water and other necessities. "Nothing is formal yet, but we still need two entrances," he told the council. "Hopefully we will see something in the near future," he added.

In other business, Alderman Everett "Cherry Picker" Morlen of the First Ward contended a law on the books in Granite City outlaws the parking of cars on any street in town from 2 a.m. to 5 a.m. He said he feels the law should be repealed, since "there is no place to put all these cars, if we don't park them on the street."

City Attorney Lance Callis was asked to search for the ordinance and bring it in at the next council meeting, if one is found. Alderman Roy Poulos of the Third Ward said he opposes a proposed surcharge the city wants to apply to county sewer users for treatment of sewage at the city's treatment plant.

"I think Mr. Whittell should come to meetings with us, rather than sending this to further his political gain in the township," he said. The township residents cannot pay any more. They can do what the city had to do when it raised its fees to meet its obligations," Whittell contended. He also said he read where attempts by Whittell to bring the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency into the conflict were unsuccessful and said he did not feel that was necessary. "The EPA, CIA, or whoever, cannot force this city around," Whittell added.

Mayor Paul Schuler commented, "You're seeing the propaganda from St. Louis County now." Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward said he has studied the 911 system and concluded, "The cost is just fantastic." Poulos added, "It would be good for the senior citizens."

The council agreed to use specifications prepared by the city engineering department to advertise for bids for trash and garbage collection.

Meetings on housing needs Mar. 4, 11, 19

The Madison County Community Development Department has announced a series of public meetings designed to discuss the problems of becoming homeowners and related legal questions.

A qualified attorney will be available to answer legal questions relating to housing matters.

In addition, low-income persons living in State Park, Venice, Eagle Park, North Venice-West Madison, West Granite-Old Town, Forest Homes-Cottage Hills, Middletown area of Alton and Oakwood in Godfrey Township may qualify for free legal counseling to help them with housing problems. Applications will be available at each meeting. The program is funded by part of a HUD (Housing and Urban Development)

Department) Small Cities Grant administered by the Madison County Community Development office. Questions about the program can be answered at 692-4386. Meetings will be held as follows:

Nameoki Township Hall, Highway 182, March 4, 6:30 p.m.
Granite City Township Hall, 2060A Delmar Ave., March 11, 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Milton

and found her shawl on the sidewalk and Mrs. Milton in the rear yard of 2828 E. 25th St.

Authorities were told a 69-year old resident of The Anchorage heard a knock on the door at about 3:45 a.m. Sunday but did not answer because she was afraid to, since she did not know who was at the door.

Mrs. Milton was pronounced dead at the scene at 9 a.m. Sunday by William Sternberg, Madison County deputy coroner. There will be an inquiry to determine the cause of death.

Four to five inches of snow fell in the Quad-City area Friday night. Skids on snow and ice were blamed for ten traffic collisions in Granite City, three in Madison and one in Venice. There were no injuries in these weekend mishaps.

The temperature Saturday night and early Sunday reached a record low of two degrees above zero, the previous record for the date was five degrees. Forecasters had believed the weather would be too cold to snow. But the cold front moved slower than expected, and the relatively heavy snowfall resulted Friday night from a combination of warm air atop a layer of cold air.

Visibility was poor for vehicular traffic, and some flights were diverted from Lambert Field due to visibility and snowfall.

Born in Stewart County, Tenn., Mrs. Milton had lived here since 1958. She was a member of the First Church of the Nazarene.

Her husband, Herbert E. Milton Sr., died March 29, 1960.

Survivors include another son, Kenneth Milton (all four sons reside in Granite City); one daughter, Mrs. Oliver (Sallie) Kirksey, Granite City; one brother, Alex Cluward, Granite City; three sisters, Mrs. Bessie Milton and Mrs. Callie Stagner, both of Granite City, and Mrs. Sallie Wallace, Dover, Tenn.; 20 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Pyramid craze

The Illinois attorney general says the scheme is unlawful and that promoters are defrauding buyers by calling it legal. The St. Clair County state attorney staff, however, has said it plans no prosecution.

One plan calls for a person to pay $1,000 cash and sell two more "memberships" for $1,000 each. He supposedly keeps $500 from each sale, eliminating his loss, and sends the rest to the club's headquarters. The two he signed up try to sign others, and the one at the top of the pyramid tries to get $500 for each individual that enters the seventh level, a list of 128 names.

The state says pyramid clubs violate lottery laws. St. Clair officials contend that no promises of gain are given, and that each buyer understands he may lose his money.

William R. Barrett of the Illinois Division of Criminal Investigation is checking complaints he has received.

Earl Extrom dies at 69

Earl S. Extrom, 69, formerly manager of the University Center bowling alley and recreation area at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, passed away Thursday night at St. Joseph's Hospital in Tucson, Ariz., following a long illness.

An employee of the university for 13 years prior to his retirement in August 1979, Mr. Extrom was a former resident of Edwardsville. He and his wife had moved to 3133 North Plowing Wells Road, Tucson, in addition to his wife, Pauline, survivors include a son, Eric, of East St. Louis.

Funeral arrangements are being made at a mortuary in Tucson. Burial will be in East Lawn Cemetery, Tucson.

Elvin James dies at 66

Elvin O. James, 66, Rural Route Three, Carlinville, formerly of the Quad-Cities, died at 8:15 p.m. Thursday at Carlinville Hospital, where he had been a patient for one day.

He was born in Tusculum, Mo., and was a Quad-City resident 30 years prior to moving to Carlinville two years ago.

Mr. James retired in 1971 as a pipefitter at General Steel Industries after 30 years of service.

He was a member of Tri-City Tabernacle and was a past president of a union local at General Steel.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Mildred James; one son, Elvin L. James, Granite City; three brothers, Don James, Granite City, Al James, Buena Park, Calif., and Robert James, Creve Coeur, Mo.; three sisters, Mrs. Raymond (Lucille) Lowe, Maynard, Mo.; Mrs. Jpe (Helen) Jones and Mrs. Clyde (Virgie) Bradford, both of Granite City; his mother, Mrs. Flossie James, Granite City; and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held here Saturday. Details are given in the obituary column.

Mrs. Winters, 84, dies here

Mrs. Sally (Boyd) Winters, 84, a six-year resident of Colonial Haven Nursing Home, died at 4:45 a.m. Saturday at the nursing home.

She was born in Tennessee and had resided in Erin, Tenn., prior to moving to this area nine years ago.

Mrs. Winters was of the Baptist faith.

Her husband, Edgar Winters, died March 1, 1959. Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Junior (Ophia) Smith, Granite City; two sons, Jessie Winters, Granite City, and Andrew Winters, Erin, Tenn.; 15 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

Three sons, Bill, Lester and Bea Winters, also preceded her in death. Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

FINED $15 ON MARIJUANA CHARGE

Vernon G. Rieffe, 17, who told police he was an employee of the Granite City Journal, pleaded guilty to a charge of possession of marijuana at 3:25 p.m. Thursday and was fined $15. Police, responding to a disturbance call in front of the Journal, 1313 19th St., at 7:40 a.m. Thursday saw a group of four young men hanging out the front windows and doors. As officers approached, the four walked away.

Police alleged finding a small plastic bag containing two cannabis cigarettes and 11 partially smoked cannabis buds. An employee declined to sign complaints.

Officers halted the four at 19th Street and Edison Avenue and took them to the police station. While at the station, Rieffe allegedly said the cannabis was his; the other three youths then were released.

The court is allowing the $15 fine to be worked out at Co-ordinated Youth Services.

Granite City Elementary (Spelling Bee held Saturday at Coolidge Junior High School).

Winners from each of the 13 schools in the district had advanced to the district-wide spelling bee.

The winner and first runner-up in each level are as follows:

2ND AND 3RD GRADES: Carolyn Haddix, second grade, Frohardt; Mike Dillier, third grade, Nameoki. Winning word in the spelling—yet.

4TH AND 5TH GRADES: Christine Doniff, fifth grade, Parkview; Willie Sumpter, fifth grade, Johnson. Winning word—dizziness.

6TH GRADE LEVEL: Cheri Rhoades, Frohardt; Christine Nash, Webster. Winning word—vague.

All sixth grade building winners are eligible to compete in a metropolitan area spelling bee later this year.

Other people and other patterns of energy use

By JOEL DARMSTADTER
 EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the seventh in a series of 15 articles exploring "Energy and the Way We Live." In this article, Joel Darmstadter, of the Resources for the Future Center for Energy Policy Research, compares our use of energy with that of other nations. This series, written for COURSES BY NEWSPAPER, a program of University Extension, University of California, San Diego, was funded by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities, with supplemental funding from the National Science Foundation.

Copyright (c) 1980 by the Regents of the University of California.
 Energy is a means toward a desired end.
 It is valued because it helps provide us with amenities that contribute to our sense of well-being. Gasoline gives us mobility; heating fuels furnish comfort and warmth; mechanized factory operations produce the diversity of goods that we like to consume.

The statistics for other industrial nations, which consume less energy per capita than the United States, would seem to indicate that it is possible to achieve these amenities with a more economical use of energy than now prevails in this country.

But how relevant are foreign examples? One faction contends we're misguided for having failed to do what Germany and some other countries have demonstrated can be done with effective public policies, skillful industrial management, and prudent consumption practices. Another faction deplors our naivete in not recognizing the distinctive conditions of American society and is convinced that ill-advised efforts to transplant foreign experience could choke our economy.

There is an element of truth in both arguments. ENERGY AND GROSS PRODUCT.

In a purely statistical sense, those arguing that we should apply foreign energy-consumption practices to the United States are persuasive.

If we look at per capita Gross Domestic Product (GDP)—the value of goods and services produced domestically per person, which is roughly proportional to per capita income—we find that in several other countries this measure is similar to that of the United States, yet per capita consumption of energy is markedly below ours.

A concise way of depicting this is to measure the amount of energy consumption associated with each $10,000 of GDP in selected countries and express it in equivalent barrels of oil.

The 1967 standings for nine countries are as follows:
 Barrels-of-Oil Equivalent per $10 thousand GDP (1976)

Canada, 115 barrels.
 U.S., 100.
 Netherlands, 88.
 Sweden, 85.
 West Germany, 74.
 Britain, 72.
 Italy, 70.
 Japan, 60.
 France, 54.

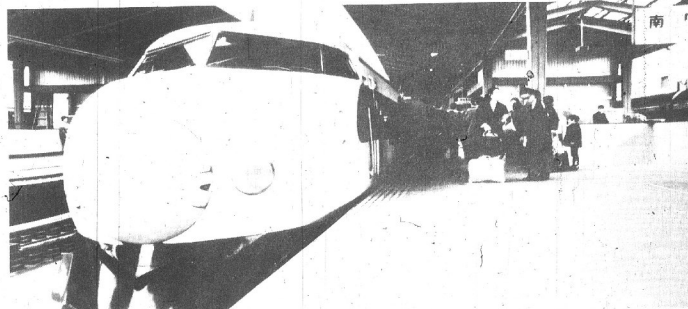

The ratio of energy to GDP in Germany is more than 25 percent below ours; in Sweden, 15 percent lower. Yet, both are affluent societies.

In this list, only Canada uses more energy than we do to produce a similar amount of goods.

However, before concluding from the German and Swedish examples that the United States could drastically reduce its level of energy use without affecting our living standards and our economic activity, we must look at the complex factors that affect the differences among countries in energy-GDP ratios.

STRUCTURAL FACTORS.

One set of factors concerns differences in the geographic make-up and industrial structure of countries. In a study published several years ago, Resources for the Future, a nonprofit research organization, found that

BULLET TRAIN, TOKYO. One of 90 super express trains that leave Tokyo daily, achieving speeds of more than 100 mph, prepares to depart. Japan, many other countries, relies more heavily on mass transport than does the United States.

Artificially cheap, facilitated these evolving patterns. However, these deeply rooted aspects of American society cannot be turned around easily—certainly not in less than the decades it would take substantially to replace our existing housing and alter settlement patterns.

The Resources for the Future research disclosed other findings as well. For example, our high energy use is not—as some may think—a consequence of a top-heavy industrial orientation.

If the industrial sector in the United States played as important a role within our economy as it does in Western Europe, we would consume even more energy than we do now.

Nor does climate explain our high usage. On the contrary, Europe has a lower energy-GDP ratio than ours despite proportionately greater heating and air conditioning requirements.

So, while some structural features such as distances and housing can be cited in "extenuation" of high U.S. energy-GDP ratios, other factors, when standardized for comparability with Europe, would push our energy use even higher.

The importance of structure in determining a country's energy consumption can be illustrated by noting that Canada (even when allowance is made for the cold climate) uses more energy relative to income than we do.

This high energy usage is the result of historically cheap hydropower and abundant natural resources which, in turn, resulted in Canada's specialization in such energy-intensive activities as metallurgy, pulp and paper manufacturing, and chemicals production.

ENERGY INTENSITY. In addition to these structural factors, there is a second set of factors that affects differences in the amount of energy used, that is, energy consumed for the same activity in various countries.

These factors account for roughly 60 percent of the differences in energy-GDP ratios between the United States and Western Europe.

For example, the fuel economy of American cars has historically been very much poorer, and the energy consumption per unit of output in a wide range of American manufacturing enterprises is distinctly higher, than in Europe.

These differences in energy intensities can be attributed partly to the higher prices of foreign energy, particularly for motor fuel.

Differences in price, in turn, arise partly because European prices have been held above the market level through taxation of energy and energy-using equipment, while in the United States, through controls, they have been held below market level.

In both cases, social policy has helped shape energy patterns—detering use in Europe, and encouraging it in the United States.

When one takes account of these cost differences, high U.S. energy intensities are not necessarily economically inefficient or wasteful from the standpoint of a household or industrial plant, though the economy as a whole may be worse off because of misguided pricing for energy.

ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT.

Even where the data indicate that one country's energy use is more effective than another's, however, it does not mean that it cannot be improved.

For example, U.S. freight transportation is, overall, less energy-intensive than Western Europe's. But the energy intensity could have been still lower if Interstate Commerce Commission regulations would not dictate that a trucker shipping Georgia peaches northward, for instance, has to return with an empty truck.

Similarly, economical heating practices in Sweden could be still further enhanced if occupants of unmeted apartments served by steam from district heating plants did not use their windows to regulate their heat.

The differences among countries in energy use are not frozen in place.

Between 1972, the year before the Arab oil embargo, and 1976, for example, the gap between Sweden's energy-GDP ratio and ours narrowed from 28 percent to 15 percent.

The U.S. ratio has been declining while Sweden's has been rising. A narrowing of the gap with other countries seems likely as well.

There is little doubt that a conservation momentum is gradually taking hold in this country, in part because of market factors as in industrial operations, and in part because of public policies, such as regulations for improved fuel economy in new cars.

Do international comparisons, then, point to the potential for significantly reduced energy consumption without sacrifice of economic welfare?

It would be cavalier to conclude that we have nothing to learn from foreign energy-using practices—especially where these represent a technological, and behavioral adaptation to high energy costs, which are now beginning to confront us, too.

At the same time, we would delude ourselves if we were to conclude that the lower ratio of energy use to GDP in some other countries provides a formula for painlessly lowering energy consumption in the United States.

BEST C.A.F.E.

Ford has the best Corporate Average Fuel Economy of any major U.S. car maker. C.A.F.E. is the government's measure of auto companies' progress in gas mileage each year. It is an average using the EPA rating system and projected 1980 total model year car sales mix as submitted to the U.S. government in December, 1979.

Only Ford among the major U.S. companies ranks first on this basis. Remember, C.A.F.E. is an average, so consult EPA ratings for individual car's mileage.

*1980 EPA ratings for comparison. Your mileage may differ depending on speed, distance and weather. Actual highway mileage will probably be lower.

New steel company directors profiled

Three persons elected as new directors of National Steel Corporation late last month have extensive knowledge and experience. They are Anthony M. Frank, chairman, United Financial Corporation of California; Dr. Jean Mayer, president of Tufts University; and Dr. James C. La Force, dean of The Business School, University of California at Los Angeles.

National Steel owns Granite City Steel.

Existing legislation requires that directors of one financial institution not serve on the board of another.

As a result of the National Steel acquisition of United Financial Corporation of California, several members of National Steel's board who also are members of the boards of other financial institutions resigned. They are Henry L. Hillman, Maurice R. Chambers, Buck Mickel and Walter A. Marting.

Profiles of the new directors follow:

Anthony M. Frank—Since September 1975, Frank has been chairman, president, and chief executive officer of United Financial Corp. of California, San Francisco, holding company of Citizens Savings and Loan Association; and chairman, president, and chief executive officer of Citizens Savings and Loan Association.

Both United Financial and Citizens Savings are now wholly owned subsidiaries of National Steel.

Frank joined Citizens Federal Savings and Loan Association as president in August 1971. He previously was president of INA Properties, Inc., and group vice-president in charge of INA Corp. real estate and health care projects.

He is chairman of the board of directors, California Housing Finance Agency, and a director of Allianz Insurance Company of America, Golden West Homes, Kaiser Cement Corporation and Bay Area Council.

He is a trustee of Blue Shield of California. Formerly, Frank served as chairman of the Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco.

Dr. Jean Mayer—Between periods of extensive undergraduate and graduate studies in this country and in Europe, Dr. Mayer earned 14 decorations for his service in World War II.

In 1950, he joined the faculty of Harvard University, where he served in numerous positions. In July 1976, he became the tenth president of Tufts University.

He was appointed in 1969 as special consultant to the president of the U.S. and was entrusted with directing the organization of the first White House Conference on Food, Nutrition and Health, which he chaired.

He is currently vice-chairman of the presidential commission on world hunger.

Dr. Mayer serves as a director of Monsanto, the French American Foundation, and the World Affairs Council. He is also a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

Extensive research efforts have resulted in Dr. Mayer's publication of approximately 750 scientific papers and numerous books.

Dr. James C. La Force—Dr. La Force joined the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) as an assistant professor in 1962.

He became chairman of the Department of Economics in 1969, and in July 1978 he was named dean of the UCLA Graduate School of Management.

Since 1971 he has been chairman, chief executive officer and a trustee of The Foundation for Research in Economics and Education. He is also a trustee of the International Institute for Economic Research.

Additionally, Dr. La Force is a director of the National Bureau for Economic Research, Transport Indemnity Company, and the Institute for Contemporary Studies.

He is a member of the board of overseers of the Hoover Institute at Stanford University, and a member of the board of advisors of the Pacific Legal Foundation College of Public Interest Law.

Farm leases at Horseshoe

Sealed bid proposals for farm leases will be accepted until 11 a.m. March 21 by the Illinois Department of Conservation on 575 tillable acres in two individual farming units in the Horseshoe Lake State Park area.

Forms and detailed information will be presented at a meeting to be conducted by a DOC representative at the site manager's new headquarters on Route 111, two miles north of I-55 at 10 a.m. Friday, March 14.

Bidders must have their bid forms completed and forwarded to the Department of Conservation, in care of Site Manager, P.O. Box 1007, Granite City 62040, or hand carried to the headquarters building by the time of the public bid opening.

Sales award to John Brooks

John E. Brooks, special representative in Granite City for the Franklin Life Insurance Company, Springfield, Ill., has qualified for one of the company's top sales awards. Franklin President William J. Alley said Brooks has qualified for membership a select group of exceptional company associates who sell $2 million of life insurance protection within 10 consecutive calendar days.

A feature story concerning Brooks' life industry achievements is to be published in the February-March issue of the Franklin Field magazine, the company's national publication.

MR. AND MRS. RICKY BIRD, who were married Feb. 16 in the home of the groom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Rigby of Granite City. The bride is the former Miss Debra Link of Brighton. The groom is the son of Betty Harris of Granite City and Donald Bird of Granbury, Texas.

Debra Link becomes Mrs. Ricky Bird

Miss Debra K. Link of Brighton, Ill., and Ricky D. Bird of Shelbyville, formerly of Granite City, were united in marriage, Feb. 16, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Rigby of Granite City, and uncle and aunt of the groom.

Miss Link is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Emmons of Brighton. The groom is the son of Betty Harris of Granite City and Donald Bird of Granbury, Texas.

The Rev. William Showers officiated at the double ring ceremony before a candlelit fireplace. Blue and white daisies also decorated the home of the groom's uncle.

Mrs. Brenda McCoy, a sister of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore a blue gown fashioned with spaghetti strap bodice and a three-tier skirt, worn with a matching cape. She held three blue carnations.

The bride selected a formal length white organza gown with sheer bishop sleeves cuffed in lace. Appliques of lace floral motifs accented the A-line skirt and was repeated on the chapel train.

The high neckline and Empire bodice were trimmed in matching lace. Her veil of bridal illusion was also edged in lace. She held a circular bouquet of blue and white daisies with blue satin streamers.

Gary McCoy, a brother-in-law of the groom, served the groom as best man. Larry Rigby seated the guests.

The groom's mother hosted a rehearsal dinner. The reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Rigby.

The bride is a 1977 graduate of Tower Hill, (Ill.), High School. Her husband graduated from Shelbyville High School in 1978, and is employed as a welder for Grain Systems, Inc., in Assumption, Ill.

HECTIC SCHEDULE faces Ted Kennedy Jr., left, as he takes a short breather Thursday at the Press-Record office to review his schedule with a campaign aide. The young Kennedy was in Granite City on Thursday morning to meet with labor leaders and others favorable to his father's presidential campaign. Kennedy staff members are moving into Illinois for the March 18 primary. Kennedy considers Illinois a key state and wanted supporters here to know that his father is still very much in the race for the Democratic nomination for president.

Loftus-Hampton nuptials

Virginia R. Hampton of East Alton and Patrick J. Loftus of Granite City, were married in a private ceremony on Feb. 15, at Alton Memorial Hospital Chapel by Rev. Charles E. Hill, Methodist chaplain of the hospital.

The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. David K. Smith of Collinsville. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John L. (Alma) Hampton of Bethalto, and the late John L. Hampton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mickey D. Loftus, 26 Bermuda Lane.

Mrs. Loftus is a 1970 graduate of Civic Memorial High School, Bethalto, and is employed by the Carpenters District Council of Madison County. Her husband is a 1970 graduate of Granite City Schools and is employed by LaSalle Steel in Alton.

After a brief honeymoon trip, the couple is residing in Alton.

Three join More the Merrier group

The More the Merrier senior citizens group held a business and birthday meeting Thursday at the Township Building.

Three new members, Josie Stoyanoff, Nina Payoe and Jean Seebold, were introduced to the group. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Grace Paddock and a prayer was given by Mrs. Ruby Corbett. The pledge to the flag was repeated by the 96 members and guest present.

Guests were Velma Rice, Anita Stark, Bernice Groggon, Wilma Ostresh and Harold and Bonnie Toynator.

Birthdays were celebrated by Dorothy Gavin, Helen Thiele, Clemen Tolt, Sylvia Misselhorn and Evelyn Morgan. Games and cards were played and prizes were awarded to Maggie Buckingham, Evelyn Smith, Evelyn Morgan and Georgia Butler.

St. citizen trip to Ice Capades

The Tri-City Area YMCA and the Area Agency on Aging will sponsor an afternoon trip to the Ice Capades on Saturday, March 15. The trip, open to all Quad-City senior citizens, will leave from the First Presbyterian Church, 22nd and Delmar Avenues, at 2:45 p.m. and return at 7:15 p.m.

Cost per person is $3.50 for admission, with the bus furnished. Through recreational grant monies provided by the Area Agency on Aging.

Registration is available beginning Friday, March 7, at 8 a.m. on a first come, first serve basis, at the RSVP office located at the 20th Street entrance of the YMCA. The trip will be limited to 47 individuals.

Olympic and World pair champions, the Protopopovs, will be featured.

CHINESE AMBASSADOR DUE HERE THIS WEEK

Final arrangements were announced for Chinese Ambassador Chai Zemin's first visit to the St. Louis metropolitan area. The ambassador from the People's Republic of China will arrive at Lambert Field Friday morning and will be the featured speaker at a conference on Sino-American relations Saturday.

Sponsored by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, the Missouri China Council, and the China Council of the Asia Society, the conference is scheduled from 8:45 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. at the Breckenridge Inn in Frontenac, located at Clayton Road and Lindberg Blvd.

CPR training on Wednesday

Training in cardiopulmonary resuscitation will be held Wednesday, beginning at 6 p.m. in the main fire station, 2300 Madison Ave.

The class is being sponsored by the Granite City Evening Kiwanis Club, with Kiwanian Mike Tondas as chairman of the event.

Steve Missey, a member of the staff at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, will conduct the CPR training.

Persons wishing more information on the four-hour course may contact Tondas at 797-0100.

The Evening Kiwanis club plans a ladies' night in late March at Charlie's restaurant.

At the club's meeting the Kiwanians voted to pay for eye examinations and glasses for six local needy children.

Mrs. Davis dies suddenly

Mrs. Helen (Feilner) Davis, 62, of 2616 Cayuga St., became ill at home and was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where she was pronounced dead upon arrival at 12:24 a.m. Saturday. There will be an inquiry to determine the cause of death.

She was a lifelong resident of Granite City. Mrs. Davis was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church and also belonged to the Women of the Moose, Chapter 267, where she also was a star recorder.

Mrs. Davis was employed as a bookkeeper for a year at Brin Brothers Clothing Store, St. Louis. She had previously worked for S. M. Wilson Construction and Henry Ross Construction.

Survivors include her husband, Nathaniel Davis Sr.; a daughter, Mrs. Julie Janelle Gates, Granite City; four sons, Nathaniel Davis

Jr., Redbud, Ill.; Leslie Eugene Davis, Tracy, Calif.; Gerald Lynn Davis, Liberty, Texas; and Jon Davis, Edwardsville, two sisters, Mrs. Violeta Huffstutler and Mrs. Betty Craft; two brothers, Lester Feilner and Bobby Feilner, all of Granite City; and 11 grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

How to fly your kite safely

Kite flying is fun.

But it can be dangerous. It needn't be if you follow these simple safety rules:

1. Use wood and paper in your kite . . . not wire or metal.
2. Use dry string . . . not wire or anything metallic.
3. Fly your kite on days when there is no rain.
4. Fly your kite FAR FROM ELECTRIC POWER LINES . . . and remember these rules when flying your model airplane too.
5. Avoid busy streets and highways while flying your kite.
6. Keep away from fallen wires.
7. Fly your kite far from TV, FM and CB antennas.
8. Call us if your kite gets snagged in a power line. Do not pull the string or climb power poles.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM F. KINDER, who were named as the 1980 Friends of Girl Scouting community chairmen. Donations to the girl scouting program may be made by calling the chairmen at 876-5007 or 876-7676.

Kinders appointed as Girl Scout community chairmen

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Kinder were recently appointed 1980 Friends of Girl Scouting Community Chairmen for Granite City. Kinder is a partner in the law firm of Kinder and Kinder, while Mrs. Kinder is active in Girl Scouting as a troop leader, canoe instructor and troop camp trainer.

In Granite City there are 134 registered girls and adults and 72 Girl Scout troops. Mrs. Myra Parrish is district chairman for local troops. These troops are members of River Bluffs Girl Scout Council which serves 512 counties, with office services located in Glen Carbon. Current costs are $29 to provide services to keep one girl in scouting for one year. Total council membership is 14,788 girls and adults.

Councilwide, every one girl in five is reached by the program. Girls make the promise and live by the girl scout law. Through girl-run and adult supervised troops, the girls do a variety of activities centered around five worlds: well being, today and tomorrow, people, the arts and the out-of-doors. Other goals are teaching girls to develop awareness of self as a unique person of worth, relating to others, developing values, and contributing to society.

Some of the services which a Friend's gift can help are supplying materials to organize new troops once they are started in addition, a council service center is maintained for a variety of troop services, councilwide events and programs. A financial assistance program is maintained and five camps and camping equipment are made available free of charge for troop use.

Prospective givers will be contacted during the month of March. If anyone is not contacted and wishes to donate, contact Bill or Diana Kinder, 876-5007 or 876-7676.

Advanced placement examinations

During the week of May 12, Advanced Placement examinations will be given at GCIS South in the following subjects: art, biology, chemistry, English, French, German, history, Latin, mathematics, music, physics and Spanish.

Informational bulletins for students are available in the guidance office; registration will take place in March.

Cost of each exam is $34. Fee waivers are available for students who demonstrate financial need. Advanced Placement (AP) exams are offered annually to give high school students opportunities to demonstrate college-level achievement. Students who score well on these tests can earn college credit and/or advanced college placement.

Students are being advised to check the college catalog to determine if AP credit is granted. Students who have not studied extensively beyond the normal secondary school level are not advised to take the AP exams; however, those who have done well in advanced and accelerated courses would probably benefit from taking AP exams.

Students should take the AP Exam in May of the year they complete the course. For example, a sophomore completing his second year of Latin could take the Latin exam, it was explained.

Course description booklets for each subject area in the Advanced Placement program are available in the guidance office for student use.

Students from other schools may take the AP exams at South or other nearby participating schools. Mrs. Sonja Adkerson is AP coordinator in the guidance office at Granite City High School South.

Hansel and Gretel in Venice, Madison

Hansel and Gretel will be performed at Blair School (9 a.m.), Harris School (10:10 a.m.) and the Venice Schools (1 p.m.) Tuesday.

The story of the Humperdink opera will be sung and acted in a concert version complete with props, costumes, and some audience participation.

The performance is provided by Young Audiences, Inc. (St. Louis Chapter), the only nationwide organization whose main purpose is to give in-school performing arts programs for children. The chapter is one of 38 affiliated with National Young Audiences.

Now in its 22nd year, the chapter schedules more than 600 performances and workshops annually in this metropolitan area.

The purpose is to develop in children enthusiasm for the performing arts, music, dance and the theater.

The performers will be Denise Sauer, Paul Killmer, Karen Oellner and pianist Nancy Schaff. All are on the faculty of St. Louis schools and colleges.

These performances are made possible by the Venice-Madison Fine Arts Committee through a grant from the Illinois Arts Council. Margaret Lee is chairman of the committee.

Marguerite Connelie, artistic director in the Madison schools, was in charge of arrangements and coordination of the performances.

Porter Cawly is principal of Harris School; Bernard Long, principal of Blair School; and Robert Vickers, superintendent in Venice.

supervised by the River Bluffs Council.

In a continuing effort to keep abreast of the times and update programs, insignias and projects in conjunction with today's world, Girl Scout executives, on a national level, have issued new membership pins and career education books.

The latest new basic handbook and other materials for teenage Girl Scouts in keeping with the Careers to Explore program, will be introduced this spring by the River Bluffs Council, to local troops.

Membership pins are expected to be available in the Quad-City area in the fall, with the exception of Browns who have their own pin, council officials noted.

The council festival will be in progress from 1 to 5 p.m. and will feature disco and square dancing, a gong show, an extensive craft display as well as Cadettes scouts manning a travel agency booth.

A tribute to volunteer workers in the Girl Scout movement will also be featured with posters listing names of volunteers and pictures illustrating their work on display throughout the week at the shopping mall.

Beginning at 4:30 p.m. Sunday, March 9, all Girl Scouts will gather for a sing-along under the direction of River Bluffs chairman, it was announced.

The council office announced there are 2,100 adult volunteers and 15,000 girls active in scouting programs.

STORM DRILL TUESDAY. A statewide tornado drill including all schools will take place at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday. Tornado warning sirens will sound throughout the area.

A copy of our report is (or will be) available for purchase from the County Clerk's Office, Madison County Courthouse, Edwardsville, Illinois.

WE GOT ELEGANCE is the name of the musical number performed by Robert State, kneeling at left, and Mark Belleville, right, and Allen Mollet, third place. Mrs. Siers presented pack appreciation awards to the following: Ted Scrum, Karen and Mike Moore, Clement Andria, Mrs. Argueles, and Steve and Linda Austin. Mr. and Mrs. Austin were also presented with scout mugs in recognition of their service as past scout leaders.

The evening ended with a reading by Gloria Huber on "Opening the Door to Scouting."

Scout Pack 19 celebrates cub scouting's 50th year

Cub Scout Pack 19 of Logan School celebrated the 50th anniversary of Cub Scouting at its annual blue and gold banquet held last week.

The evening opened with the pledge to the flag. The invocation was given by Vernon Kimbrough of Den 3.

A potluck dinner was served to all present. Guests were introduced by Committee Chairman, Vicki Siers. They included Mr. and Mrs. Ted Scrum, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Henn and Jack Taylor.

Scrum and Henn gave talks on how cub scouting started and the importance of parent participation.

Mrs. Siers introduced other pack personnel: Barbara Varadian, cubmaster; Gloria Huber, den leader coach; Peggy Moore, treasurer; and Jolene Brady, Elaine Kimbro, Debbie Tinsley and Pam Shemwell, den leaders.

After dinner, Jack Taylor of the Order of the Arrow gave a slide presentation and talk on Camp Sunn.

A skit was presented by Den 1 under the leadership of Jolene Brady.

Mrs. Varadian then presented awards to the cubs. Den 1 award winners were: Bob Pointer and Jeff Koleff, bobcat pins turned and bobcat badges; David Look, progress towards rank and four beads; James Roe and Brian Moore, progress towards rank and two beads; Corey Lupardus, progress towards rank and one bead.

Awards in Den 2 went to: James Collins, progress towards rank and three beads; Terry Tinsley, Jason Shemwell and Mike Ethington, progress towards rank, four beads and wolf badge. Den 3 recipients were: Eric Smith, progress towards rank, four beads and wolf badge; Eric Vargo, progress towards rank and one bead; Vernon and Mark Kimbro, three beads; and Dave Ellsworth, one bead.

Webelos award winners were: Charlie Collins, athlete, sportsman, outdoorsman and forester; Jake Varadian, sportsman, athlete, showman and outdoorsman; and Kenny Griggs, sportsman.

Last month's pinewood derby winners receiving trophies were, Gary Reimund, first place; Steve Huffstutler, second place; and Allen Mollet, third place.

Mrs. Siers presented pack appreciation awards to the following: Ted Scrum, Karen and Mike Moore, Clement Andria, Mrs. Argueles, and Steve and Linda Austin. Mr. and Mrs. Austin were also presented with scout mugs in recognition of their service as past scout leaders.

The evening ended with a reading by Gloria Huber on "Opening the Door to Scouting."

Pack 8 hosts award dinner

Cub Pack 8, sponsored by the First United Presbyterian Church, held an awards dinner at the church last week to honor Webelos who have earned specific badges.

Albert M. Muniz Jr., a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert (Eugenia) Muniz Sr., of Fairmont City, received Webelos activity badges — naturalist, sportsman, citizen and scholar and Arrow of Light, the highest award for Webelos.

Mrs. Ramsey and Mike Vincent presented awards to the Muniz boy and other members of the pack following the potluck dinner.

Mrs. Carol Warren serves as den mother for Webelos and Cubmaster for Webelos is Mike Vincent.

Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Muniz, Kemp Muniz and Mrs. Dorothy Branz, a brother and aunt of the honoree. He also is a grandson of Mrs. Florence Woodward of Granite City.

William B. Reeves, executive director, on Thursday defended the St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority and its proposal to construct and operate a central cargo hub for the U.S. air cargo system.

Reeves asserted, "U.S. Transportation Secretary Goldschmidt's statements are blatantly political. No application has been submitted to him. He has not reviewed any proposal."

"He has no understanding whatever of the concept involved. It is clear the secretary has been misinformed."

The Carter Administration deregulated

the airlines, which resulted in enormous demands for air cargo. They gave no thought whatever to providing facilities from which the air carriers can operate.

"The proposal for a central hub for the U.S. all-cargo airlines will contribute substantial facilities for the entire U.S. system."

"The secretary apparently believes there is not enough cargo business at Lambert Airport to justify a cargo airport; of course there is not. That has nothing whatever to do with the proposed central hub."

"What we are witnessing here again is an opportunity for private industry being stifled by a make do, do nothing, no growth administration."

"The Transportation Secretary says funds are not available. He must know that the Aviation Trust Fund, which is controlled by him, has a surplus of over $3 billion, which has already been collected from passengers and cargo shippers."

"These funds could not be better spent than to provide such facilities as these which would serve the entire U.S. all-cargo industry."

"Our work in developing our proposal goes forward with full confidence. It is important to remember that the work began in response to industry demands."

"There is going to be a Midwest all-cargo hub. The only question is whether Secretary Goldschmidt is determined to take the opportunity away from the people of Illinois as a political favor to some other state," Reeves concluded.

The immediate past Transportation Secretary, Brock Adams, blocked an intercontinental airport at Columbia-Waterloo, Ill., after the Ford Administration had approved the proposal. Adams was an appointee of Pres. Carter, as is Goldschmidt.

DAMAGE MOTEL ROOM

A cleaning woman at the Travelodge motel found a room rented to a couple damaged and items worth $50 stolen when she went in to clean at 10:40 a.m. Saturday. The man had rented the room at 1 a.m. and four hours later returned to the office and demanded his money back. The night manager told him this was not possible and the man allegedly said he would take care of the matter. Towels, wash cloths, a bath mat and a table lamp are missing and a lamp shade was burned; there was damage to a radio speaker and television knobs.

Dear Voter

For 14 years I have served as an Associate Trial Judge, hearing a variety of cases, including criminal, damage, and divorce. I feel I have done a good job as an Associate Judge and believe I would be an effective Circuit Judge. Therefore, I am a candidate for Circuit Judge, the next step above Associate Judge in the judicial system.

In the case of People vs. David Gray, the defendant was found guilty of rape, armed robbery and attempted murder and sentenced to 60 years. Gray filed an appeal with the Appellate Court, contesting my imposition of the maximum 60 year sentence. Under Illinois law, the maximum sentence for rape is 30 years; however, if the Judge is convinced that the crime is of a brutal nature, a maximum of 60 years may be imposed. The Appellate Court affirmed the 60 year sentence, including all my rulings.

Among my supporters are George J. Moran, recently retired Judge of the Appellate Court, Fred P. Schuman, former Chief Judge of the Circuit Court, and many lawyers and friends. If you wish to check on my qualifications, please call any lawyer or any judge in your area. You can also ask Emil Toffant, Sheriff of Madison County, who strongly endorses me.

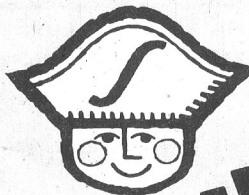

I am opposed by an individual whose practice has been confined to the trial of damage suits, who has no prior judicial experience and whose practice has been confined to one area of the law.

I hope you cast your ballot for me in the Primary Election to be held on March 18, 1980.

Andy Matoesian

P.S. There are eight Circuit Judges in this Circuit, which consists of Madison and Bond Counties. There is no Circuit Judge now living in Granite City, Madison or Venice, yet these cities represent the bulk of the votes for the Democratic Party. If I am not elected, the Tri City area will be without a Circuit Judge. Does this situation make good sense politically, geographically or from the standpoint of good judicial management?

Bethel 43 hosts 'Masonic Night'

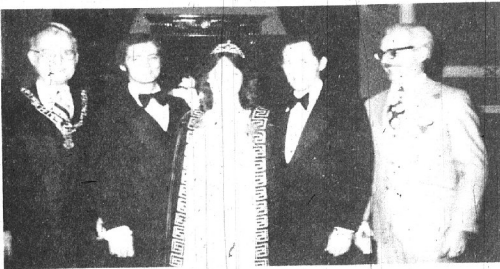

"Masonic Night" was observed by Bethel 43, International Order of Job's Daughters, at a meeting held at the Masonic Temple. The special meeting was conducted by Honored Queen Lea Ann Baker.

The Job's Daughters were honored with having E. Gene Ross, right worshipful senior grand warden of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Illinois and past master of Triple Lodge 835; Edward W. Lane, most illustrious grand master of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of the State of Illinois and past master of Triple Lodge 877; Worshipful Masters Kelly Hogan of Triple Lodge 835 and Elvis Byrd of Granite City Lodge 877. Talks were given by E. Gene Ross and Edward W. Lane on masonry.

Masonic members of Triple Lodge 835 introduced other than those mentioned were: Jerome Pragez, Irvin Slate Sr., John W. Barks, Edward Schallinger, past patron of Eastern Star New Hope Chapter 432; Richard Bills, Ellis N. Hackey, Kenneth Wingrove, Darold Dickerson, Dale O'Beare, Robert Graham, Herbert Doolin, Larry Ross, and Robert Shaw.

Members of Lodge 877 in attendance were Jimmy Fox, past master of 877, Gene Hancock, Jimmy E. Stuart, Robert, Hebbelwhite, Hector Ashal and Sid Strotheide.

Other guests escorted and introduced included Gena Fox, junior past honored queen of Bethel 43; Mrs.

MASONIC NIGHT observed at Bethel 43, Order of Job's Daughters, meeting held at the Masonic Temple. Among the guests attending were E. Gene Ross, right worshipful senior grand warden of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Illinois; Worshipful Master Kelly Hogan of Triple Lodge 835; Honored Queen Lea Ann Baker of Bethel 43; Worshipful Master Elvis Byrd of Granite City Lodge 877; and Edward W. Lane, most illustrious grand master of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of the State of Illinois.

Rebecca Slate, Bethel 43 guardian; Ralph W. Baker, associate guardian and member of Masonic Lodge 877; Martin Love, grand inner guard to the State of Illinois and past associate guardian of Bethel 43, past master of Triple Lodge 835 and past patron of Eastern Star New Hope Chapter 432; Mrs. Dona Boyer, worthy matron of Eastern Star Granite Chapter 630 and John Boyer, worthy patron of Granite Chapter 630 and a member of Triple Lodge 835. Past matrons of Eastern Star included Mrs. Arlene Fox, Granite Chapter 630 and Mrs. Helen B. Love of New Hope Chapter 432. Other council members of Bethel 43 recognized were: Mrs. Sarah Metcalf, guardian secretary; Dick Sandall, promoter of finance; Mrs. Fran Holt, promoter of sociability; Mrs. Charlotte Root, guardian director of music and past matron of New Hope Chapter 432, and Mrs. Delora Baker, Custodian of Paraphanelia. Plans were made to attend the Lewis and Clark DeMolay "sweetheart" competition; District 16 DeMolay skating party to be held at Starlight Skating Rink in Troy, Ill., March 23; Fairview Heights DeMolay installation March 8, grand session May 1-4, and going to the Shriner's Hospital March 16. Reports were made on past activities by Becky Cooper on a visit to the McDonnell Planetarium and Suzy and Cathy Sandall on the official visit to Joliet.

Three petitions for membership were read and those selected to investigate the candidates were: Gail Plinitz, Patty Crider, Sheri Ashal, Jennie Holt, Theresa Laver, Shelle Knight, Kathy Bronsman, Lisa Jones, Jennifer Benoit and Lea Ann Baker. Librarian Sheri Ashal gave her report entitled "Better, Wiser, and Happier", and gave a copy of the poem to the honored queen. Installation of Dick Sandall as guardian treasurer was conducted by Mrs. Rebecca Slate, deputy grand officer to the State of Illinois and assisted by the following installing officers: Jennie Holt, guide, Suzy Sandall, secretary, and Becky Cooper, chaplain. A certificate from the Grand Guardian Council was given to Sandall noting his appointment.

Proficiency tests were given to Paula Bills and Sherry Hancock by Queen Lea Ann Baker, senior princess Kathy Bronsman, and junior princess Teri Robertson. The instructors for the new members tested were Jennie Holt and Suzy Sandall. Certificates were given to the members passing the proficiency test. Gail Plinitz was prom for the evening serving as junior custodian.

A letter was read from Vice-Grand Guardian June Smock that Laura Gant was selected to serve as grand representative to the State of Arizona. Laura will be installed in May at grand session in Chicago. The invocation was given by all the Job's Daughters with Mrs. Fran Holt directing.

Table formations of the compass and square, "top" hats for centerpieces and favors, and aprons for placemats were used to carry on the Masonic theme in the dining room. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Sharon Sandall, Mrs. Betty Robertson and Mrs. Jane Ashal.

Choir practice will be held only for those planning on attending grand session for state competition, at Mrs. Holt's house. Majority Degree, honor the founder of Job's Daughters, Mrs. Ethel T. Wead Mick and honor past honored queens will take place at the next meeting, March 11, it was announced.

Reunion day set at Briarcliff Church

Plans for a reunion day on June 1 at Briarcliff Pentecostal Church was the topic of a lengthy discussion of the Ladies in Action group of the church, last week.

Mrs. Dorothy Lakin was appointed to secure names and addresses of former members to be invited to the event. Mrs. Phyllis Allen was named as chairman to contact various gospel singing groups who will perform during the all day affair.

The meeting opened with each member receiving an American flag and repeating the pledge of allegiance. They then said a special prayer for the hostages held in Iran.

New yearbooks were distributed to each one attending.

A poem entitled, "Worry No More, God Knows the Score" by Helen Steiner Rice, was read by Mrs. by Mrs. Opal Orrell.

Devotions taken from the book of Genesis in relation to a lesson on "Dressing the Garden" was given by Mrs. Dorothy Dickerson.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Norma Tolbert and Mrs. Dickerson to those named and to Mesdames Chris Spencer, Bonnie Davis, Vangie Bower, Marge Glasgow and Doris Glasgow, the latter also won the evening prize.

BPW awards scholarship

Miss Rosemarie Stephenson was the recipient of the Verna Lengyl Scholarship awarded by the BPW Club at its dinner meeting held at Bill Burn's Cafeteria, last week.

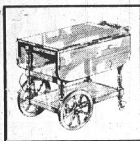

Miss Stephenson, a member of the club, is employed in the intensive care unit at St. Mary's Hospital and is currently attending college. She plans to pursue her studies to earn a bachelor degree and ultimately a masters degree in nursing, it was announced.

Guest speaker for the evening was Will Spake of WMRY-FM radio in Belleville. He spoke on building up ones self assertiveness.

Another phase of the local club is the Individual Development Program. Through this program women are trained in public speaking. Mrs. Sharold Yount won the speak-off contest, at the local level, and presented her speech at the club meeting.

Nursery shower for Mrs. Harper

Mrs. Skip (Carla) Harper was guest of honor at a surprise nursery shower given last week in the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Chris Harper, Sunny Dell Acres.

Co-hostesses included Diana Miller, Pam Goeber, Marsha Keller and Sherry Knobloch.

They used a pink and blue motif for the table appointments and the cake was inscribed with pink and blue miniature infant items.

Several games relative to the event were directed by the hostesses and prizes awarded to the winners.

Guests attending included Mesdames Judy Leffer, Etta Hawk and daughter Debbie, Connie Harper and daughter Doreen, Shirley Jandewicz and daughter Julianne, Rita Keller, Kay Roach, Miss Dawn McKinnon, Miss Shawn McKinnon, Mary Brewer, Joshua Miller, Mary Vasquez, Todd and Eddie Goeber, Mrs. Ruth Paul and Mrs. Ann Harper, mother and mother-in-law of the honoree.

Marlene Dickerman weekly best loser

At the weekly meeting of TOPS (Taking Off Pounds Sensibly), it was announced that Marlene Dickerman was the weekly best loser. Pat Crockrell was the winner of the quarter game.

It was also noted that Datha Ely has lost weight for nine consecutive weeks. Members are to keep a calorie chart or pledge to lose weight in the following week. Secretary Bea Stentzer gave the minutes of the previous meeting, and Treasurer Helen Johnson gave her report.

Kathi Walker was in charge of the white elephant auction which was recently held.

The election for new officers will be held on March 10 and all members are urged to attend.

The meeting was closed in the circle of friendship and the saying of the KOPS and TOPS pledges. Information concerning membership may be obtained by calling the president at 876-5343 or Co-leader Dana Worthen at 877-3292, it was announced.

Card club honors

Mrs. Edith Ryan

Mrs. Edith Ryan received a gift from members of the Butterfly Card Club in observance of her birthday Thursday evening.

The group met in the home of Mrs. Ryan for the semi-monthly meeting co-hosted by Mrs. Lorraine McIlvoy.

They used a belated Valentine theme for the table appointment and other decorations.

Those winning prizes in the evening games were Mesdames Hazel Rollins, Irene Willis, Thelma Schmidt and Katie Hommert who also received honors.

A dessert luncheon was served to those named and to Mesdames Mary Lou Clausen, Harriet Hoff, Nell Talley and Juanita Rosenberg. Mrs. Clausen will host the next session, it was announced.

Doreen Hutchings joins chapter

The Beta Nu Chapter of Phi Tau Omega Sorority held its solemn initiation of new members last week at the home of Miss Dorothy Hinson of Madison.

The evening began with a steak dinner. While still at the dinner table, a guessing game of common spices and foods was held. Prizes went to Mrs. Betty Tormino, Mrs. Sally Brooks and Mrs. Doreen Hutchings.

The solemn installation was held for one new member: Mrs. Doreen Hutchings of Madison. Vice-President Mrs. Jane Modrusic and President Mrs. Frances Cowley conducted the ceremony.

Following the ceremony hors d'oeuvres and cocktails were enjoyed by all. Others attending were: Mrs. Norma Hillmer, Mrs. Peggy Hinson, Mrs. Eunice Whitsett, Mrs. Thelma Gorterman, Mrs. Judy Modrusic and Mrs. Dorothy Bergrath.

Methodist women hosts annual president's tea

The United Methodist Women of the Nameoki, coordinator of the annual annual St. Louis District President's Tea last week. Twenty-four churches in the Quad-City area sent representatives to this meeting.

Special reports were presented by various district officers, including Dorothy Luckett, Granite City, president; Ruth Cogles, Belleville, treasurer; Mar Renfro, Lebanon, Christian social involvement coordinator; and Billie Laumbattus, Marietta, membership chairperson.

Mrs. Arline Schmeizel, Edwardsville, coordinator of Christian personhood, led in the opening prayer.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Helen Biscoe, president of the local unit, was assisted in serving punch and cookies behind a red, white and blue decorated tea table, by Luan Briner, Mary Bailey, Alma Cowan, Gladys Russell, Alta Stewart, Ruth Thurnberry and Dorothy Wallace.

Other local women attending were Corinne

Future plans of Ladies Sodality

The Ladies Sodality of St. Elizabeth Church met in the school cafeteria last week and finalized plans for various events to take place during this month and in June.

Father Henry Schmidt led the opening prayer and Mrs. Pam Ames presided over the meeting.

The main topic of discussion was the parish social and carnival scheduled for June 1. The annual project will be held on the parish grounds it was announced.

Mrs. Ames announced the St. Patrick's day dance will be from 8 p.m. to 12 on March 15 in the parish hall and a bake sale is planned for March 29-30.

A Holy Thursday pot luck luncheon is set for April 3, according to the president. After the business discussions Ellis Herring from Herring Boutique spoke on a program relating to the florist business and also made a floral arrangement, which was later given as a prize to Nora King.

Other awards went to Mrs. Helen Miller who received the madonna prize, Mary McLean the quilt of the month and the school attendance prize went to Mrs. Tina Holland's fifth grade.

Tentative Nameoki town budgets higher

By GARY SCHNEIDER
of the Press-Record

Nameoki Township has posted tentative budgets for the 1980-81 fiscal year which are nearly 10 percent higher than the budgets in the previous year, but lower than the budgets for the 1979-80 fiscal year.

The tentative 1980-81 budgets, which will be subjected to a public hearing March 25 before being amended or approved, total $616,105, or $55,174 higher than the 1979-80 budgets which totaled $560,931.

The tentative 1980-81 budgets (with the previous year in parentheses) are: town fund, $151,460 ($142,671); general assistance, $43,603 ($42,970); municipal retirement for township employees, $23,543 ($20,000); anti-recession fiscal assistance, $10,000 ($335); revenue sharing, $90,000 ($82,700); road and bridge, $141,728 ($125,000); special hard road, $92,867 ($77,255); construction of bridges, $162 (none); and municipal retirement for highway employees, $22,742 ($20,000).

Proposed town fund expenditures in the 1980-81 fiscal year include $146,460 for administration ($35,500 of which is for the annual convention) and $5,000 for contingencies.

The $10,000 in the Anti-Recession Fiscal Assistance Act fund will be used entirely for office and custodial salaries.

General assistance appropriations include $19,000 for salaries (excluding elected officials) and $6,740 for miscellaneous administrative expenses, $41,813 for home relief, $15,550 for institutional care and $500 for contingencies. Revenue sharing appropriations being suggested include $19,500 for environmental cleanup, $4,000 to support ambulance service, $10,700 for a tornado warning system, $1,100 for an audit, $30,900 for health programs, $10,000 for administrative salaries, $2,200 for legal services, $6,500 to aid the Nameoki Township volunteer police and $2,000 for building repairs.

Also, $3,000 for a social service program for the elderly, $1,000 for office and furniture supplies, $500 for the State Park Street Light District, $300 for a revenue sharing seminar, $300 for printing expenses, $6,100 for a rabies control truck and $2,000 for an improvement survey of State Park Place.

The general road fund budget includes $55,044 for administration, $26,000 for environmental and health work under contract with the town board, $31,344 for the maintenance of roads, $6,280 for the purchase of machinery, $17,060 for repairs to machinery and $3,000 for contingencies.

Tentative appropriations in the permanent road fund include $27,143 for salaries, $26,724 for materials and supplies and $7,000 for gasoline and oil.

A FAMILY AFFAIR. Supporters of Circuit Judge Charles "Bill" Chapman who attended a fund-raiser Saturday evening in Madison were treated to Slavic garlic sausage made Thursday evening by the judge and his family. From the left clockwise are Sarah Chapman, age 8, back to camera, her father, Judge Chapman, John Severine, brother-in-law of Chapman, Tom Chapman, age 12, and Chrissie Chapman, 14.

GC MAN ARRESTED
Charles M. Beasley, 33, of 1724 Chestnut St., was arrested outside Sammy's Tavern in Lincoln Place last week and was charged with battery in a complaint signed by his wife, Starlen. Mrs. Beasley alleged her husband approached her in the tavern and threatened to slap her. He was ordered out and complied, but returned about 10 minutes later and got into an argument with a tavern employee, it was alleged. He was released on $35 cash bond.

CHECKING PLANS for the 1980 Homemakers Extension Association membership drive are, seated left to right, Belinda Hoffman and Judy Baker, and standing, from the left, Lucille Sackett and Arline Brinkmeyer, all of Granite City. The membership drive was the topic of a luncheon last week and will run from March 1 to April 30.

Ten-year old teaches fifth graders at Logan School

Mike Velloff celebrates his birthday only once every four years. No, not because he doesn't like to admit he's old. After all, he is only 10 years old. And he teaches fifth grade at Logan School. How can a 10 year old teach school, you ask? Well, it's easy if his birthday happens to be on Feb. 29, Leap Year Day.

Velloff, who was born on Feb. 29, 1940, claims to be only 10. "I always take a lot of kidding," he commented. When he went to re-apply for his driver's license, the clerks wondered how someone that young could be driving, he related.

Velloff has been teaching at Logan for 16 years. Friday, the teachers at Logan and Prather surprised him with a breakfast in honor of his "tenth" birthday.

He attended college at St. Louis University and has been married for 15 years to his wife, Terrah. Velloff enjoys his once-every-four-years birthdays, and he's looking forward to his eleventh birthday in 1984.

Answers on nutrition, diet

"Let's Talk Food" will be presented by Schnucks and the St. Louis Dietetic Association on Saturday, March 8, from 12 noon until 2 p.m. in Schnucks supermarkets.

The program consists of registered dietitians being present in Schnucks supermarkets (except the 614 Olive store and the Overland store) to answer consumer questions about weight control, food ingredients and nutrition. Suzanne Correnti, Dietetic Association public relations chairman, invites consumers to participate. "With almost half of the adult population interested in special diets, we know that there is a growing interest in nutrition," she says.

"Even those who are not on special diets are becoming increasingly aware of the value of good nutrition. We urge the public to take this opportunity to talk to our dietitians."

March is National Nutrition Month.

Discuss detachment

Efforts are under way by the Madison County state's attorney's office to relieve persons in Nameoki, Chouteau and Venice townships of unfair sewer taxes if they will not receive service by the new sanitary sewers.

Mary Kane, administrative assistant to Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer, reported on this objective to those attending last week's sewer committee meeting. Attempts are being made to prepare a list of those who already have sewers from Granite City and those who will not receive sewers although they are in the sewer district, it was explained.

Morris Miles, a member of the sewer committee, chaired the meeting in the absence of Chairman Louis Whittle.

BATTERIES STOLEN
Thieves visited the parking lot of Bethel Chapel Pentecostal Church, W. 25th Street and Ohio Avenue, again on Saturday and stole two batteries from two buses parked on the lot. The loss was estimated at $170.

Percy legislation needed to curb truck crash fatalities

The U.S. Senate, by a vote of 89 to 16, has adopted legislation proposed by Senator Charles H. Percy (R-Ill.) to curb a startling rise in trucking accidents and fatalities. Percy's legislation, the Commercial Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1979 (S. 1980), would strengthen the authority of the Department of Transportation (DOT) to establish and enforce truck safety standards and health and safety standards for truck drivers. It deserves enactment, in remarks to the Senate, Percy said that in recent years unsafe trucking practices have reached epidemic proportions, threatening the health and safety of truck drivers and American motorists. "Heavy trucks pose severe hazards to automobile drivers and passengers," Percy said. "In a fatal accident involving a heavy truck and a passenger car, 97 percent of the deaths are the occupants of the car."

"In recent years, improper truck maintenance, unfit equipment, overloading and often unreasonable driving schedules, have contributed to the creation of severe hazards on our roads. Truck accidents and fatalities have increased at an alarming rate."

According to latest DOT figures, of the 50,000 highway fatalities in this nation in 1978, 17,758, or nearly 35 percent, related to trucks of all kinds and buses. Heavy trucks alone were responsible for 11 percent of the fatal accidents, despite the fact that they comprise less than one percent of the vehicles on the road.

The Percy legislation would help to streamline truck safety regulations by providing financial incentives for states which adopt national uniform standards, reporting and paperwork requirements. S. 1980 would specifically:

Raise civil fines from $500 to a maximum of $10,000 for serious safety violations.

Authorize the secretary of Transportation to regulate the health and safety of working conditions for truck drivers and ensure that trucks are safely maintained and operated.

Provide for one-year imprisonment and/or a maximum $25,000 fine for knowing and willful criminal violations.

Expand federal truck safety jurisdiction to include all commercial motor vehicles, both interstate and intrastate, over 10,000 pounds.

Authorize the Transportation secretary to conduct on-the-job inspections and investigations.

Expand federal truck safety jurisdiction to include all commercial motor vehicles, both interstate and intrastate, over 10,000 pounds.

Authorize the Transportation secretary to conduct on-the-job inspections and investigations.

Prevent trucking employees from discipline, discharge or discrimination for refusing to drive an unsafe vehicle or for reporting safety violations.

Authorize a uniform reporting system to eliminate excessive paperwork required of trucking firms and truckers.

Encourage states to assist in the enforcement of truck safety by offering them federal financial incentives. Allow states to apply for exemptions from particular Federal regulations if their proposed regulations do not diminish safety.

Authorize the secretary to rule on the safety aspects of fit, willing and able determinations by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Require the secretary to promulgate any rule or regulation according to a specific and expeditious timetable.

Authorize the secretary of Transportation to order those vehicles or employees out of service which pose an imminent hazard to public safety. And require the secretary to report yearly to Congress concerning the need to improve truck safety, and assessing the advisability of establishing a National Commercial Driver Register.

Percy's legislation was endorsed by the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, the Professional Drivers Council (PDC) and the American Trucking Association. The measure was supported by a bipartisan group of legislators.

The House Committee on Public Works and Transportation is currently conducting hearings on H.R. 4971, the companion bill to S. 1980.

Stalemate on sewer break ending?

A stalemate between the Metro-East Sanitary District and Cahokia over who will repair a broken Cahokia sewer line may be resolved this week, according to indications from officials involved.

Disagreement over the responsibility for repairing the sewer line has kept the Blue Waters Ditch drainage program from beginning, since the sanitary district's board of commissioners has refused to approve the Blue Waters Ditch agreement until something is done about the Cahokia sewer line, which the sanitary district cannot afford to repair.

The U.S. Corps of Engineers has agreed to construct a pump station in St. Clair County for the Blue Waters Ditch, which drains into the Mississippi River. However, once the station is completed, it must be turned over to some governmental entity to operate and maintain.

Since the sanitary district is without funds, the Illinois Department of Transportation, Division of Water Resources, worked out an agreement in which a fund to operate and maintain the station will be established at no cost to the sanitary district and the sanitary district then will use that fund to operate and maintain the pump station.

Under the IDOT proposal, at least $50,000 will be kept in the fund. Cahokia will be responsible for 59.7 percent of the costs, Centerville 2.6 percent, Allerton 8.1 percent, St. Clair County 4.9 percent and Centerville Township 3.7 percent.

Those entities already have approved the project, but the sanitary district has refused to sign it, using it as leverage for solving the Cahokia sewer repair problem. Early last month, Cahokia officials indicated they may be willing to assume the local share of the cost of rebuilding that main trunk line, but no additional details have been offered.

Russell Robinson of Granite City, president of the sanitary district's board of trustees, indicated Thursday that he may sign the Blue Waters Ditch contract this week. No reason for the change of position was given.

The Blue Waters Ditch project is the first step in the larger Hillside Drainage Project. The Corps of Engineers is proposing to improve drainage in the American Bottoms, from Mitchell to Cahokia.

Thursday, the sanitary district board authorized the Hurst-Cook Engineers to start St. Louis to apply for federal Economic Development Administration grant funds to help finance the local share of the costs for repairing the Cahokia trunk line and a break in the Lansdowne trunk line which has been emptying sewage into Cahokia Mounds State Park.

The Illinois attorney general's office has filed suit against the sanitary district and Caseyville for immediate repair of the Lansdowne trunk line. It is estimated that the local share of the cost of repairing the break near Cahokia Mounds could be $70,000 to $120,000. Dean McIlvray of the Hurst-Cook firm told the board.

Efforts to convince federal disaster officials that the break is related to recent flooding will continue. Two appeals for disaster funds already have been rejected.

Hold 4 in today's robbery

Four teenage boys are being held by Granite City police today in connection with an armed robbery believed to have occurred near 25th Street and Washington Avenue about 2:30 a.m. today.

Victims Mike Nikonowicz, 18, of the 1900 block of Grand Avenue, and Larry Ryan, 16, of the 2400 block of Washington Avenue, told police they were at a rock concert at Kiel Auditorium in St. Louis and the four teens agreed to give them a ride home.

When they got back to Granite City, the three of the four teens allegedly displayed pocket knives and refused to let Nikonowicz and Ryan out of the car until they got some money.

Nikonowicz gave them about $50 and his pocket knife, he said. Ryan said he had no money or belongings to give them.

The two were allowed out of the car and notified Granite City police at 3 a.m. of the robbery. A description of the auto and its direction of travel was radioed to area police departments.

A short time later, Pontoon Beach police reported they had stopped a car on Route 162 at Lake Drive and the four occupants were in custody. A wallet and a pocket knife were found in the auto, according to Pontoon Beach officials.

They were brought to the Granite City Police Department, pending additional investigation. The names of those being held were not released, pending the possible filing of charges. Officers said the teens ranged from 16 to 18 and the youths are from Collinsville, Edwardsville, Washington Park and Troy.

Terrorism now focusing on U.S., other embassies

Press Record Washington Bureau — When terrorists captured the U.S. Embassy in Tehran and seized American diplomatic personnel as hostages, France among other allies certain of World countries managed to view our ordeal with considerable equanimity.

Indeed, there were unconfirmed reports after President Carter banned American purchase of Iranian oil that the French had rushed in to replace us with an advantageous contract that relieved the Iranians of any complication created by the U.S. action.

Early in February, France got a dose of the new anarchy in world diplomacy that seems to be spreading in Tehran. Libyan mobs, with the active support of Libya's leader, Colonel Moammar Khadafi, ransacked France's embassy in Tripoli and its consulate in Benghazi.

This happened for the simple reason that France had displeased Col. Khadafi. A few days before the Libyan violence, the French had rushed military advisers and aircraft to Tunis following a Libyan-inspired attack on the Tunisian town of Gafsa.

Although the attacking terrorists were Tunisians, they had been trained and equipped by Libya, and France's assistance to the Tunisians enraged Col. Khadafi, despite his protestations of innocence in the Tunisian attack.

With leftists recently seizing or attacking Spanish and Panamanian embassies in El Salvador, and diplomats now being held in an embassy at Bogota, Colombia, it appears that the Tehran syndrome is spreading.

This compromise of the ancient and, until now, ever-honored sanctity of diplomatic missions, even in wartime, has profound implications for the future of diplomacy around the world.

In all of this, it is significant that Soviet embassies have continued to enjoy immunity from violence. Even after the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan, militants in other countries refrained from hostile acts against Russian embassies and restricted their protests to relatively mild demonstrations.

By contrast, the U.S. Embassy in Islamabad, Pakistan, was sacked for no more reason than a rumor that Americans somehow were responsible for attacking the sacred Mosque at Mecca.

The obvious conclusion is that those making clear their intention to defend their embassies from invasion as though their own soil, and otherwise to inflict punishment on any host government countenancing violent mobs, will be spared either injury or the necessity of such retribution.

Voters to help guide Venice school future

Residents of the Venice School District will have a voice in determining the future of the schools, at least in two areas, the Venice Board of Education decided Thursday night.

It was agreed that a proposal to transfer special education building funds to the district's regular building fund should be placed on the ballot for the April 12 school board election.

A new state law allows the transfer of up to $35,000 in special education building funds, if the voters approve. The regular building fund will be used for facilities and maintenance of special education classrooms and property, it was explained.

A resolution to place the issue on the ballot will be prepared by Attorney Larry Hartman and will be presented to the board in the near future for final passage.

The board also agreed to hold a public hearing at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, March 13, to discuss notices of honorable dismissal which are likely to be sent to many teachers later this school year.

The notices are required as part of a possible reduction in staff for the next school year. It was explained that the annual sending of notices to teachers is a precaution, so staff can be reduced if federal or state funding for the Venice Lincoln Technical Center or other federal programs is cut or greatly reduced.

The board ratified a two-year agreement with Building Service Employees Local 48, which represents the district's custodians, secretaries and cooks.

Twelve-month employees will receive 15 cents more per hour in the first year, plus 20 cents more in the second year of the contract. In addition, the cost-of-living clause has been eliminated from the contract and employees were granted a 5 1/2 percent per hour wage increase in its place.

The new contract, which covers the 1980-81 and 1981-82 school years, also eliminates substitute custodians from being represented by the union.

Teachers who supervised at basketball games will have extra pay on their next paychecks, the board agreed. Superintendent Robert Vickers said the teachers should receive $10 for each game and a total of $510 is owed.

The board also transferred $55,000 from education fund to the transportation fund to help pay for a new $19,323 bus the district has received.

Tornado drill tomorrow

Tornado sirens throughout the state of Illinois will sound at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow for the annual state tornado drill.

Schools, St. Elizabeth Medical Center, nursing homes and other facilities will hold drills in conjunction with the sounding of the warning sirens.

Activities of the local Emergency Services and Disaster Agency offices and volunteers will begin an hour before the sirens sound as the U.S. Weather Service will give the local ESDA (Civil Defense) office a simulated warning of pending weather which could produce tornadoes.

Volunteers from the CBERT Weather Watch Team will go to their assigned locations to watch for potential tornadoes and will radio their locations, on CB radio, to the ESDA office in the Granite City Police Building.

Their task will end when the simulated tornado warning is issued the sirens are sounded.

Madison thin-clads sixth

CHARLESTON — The Madison High boys track team finished in a tie for sixth here Saturday at the annual Eastern Illinois University High School Invitational indoor meet.

Madison and Oakland each finished with 22 points in the small school division. St. Anne won the division with 44 points. Volcomet-Seymour had 40, Beardtown 48, Beecher 34, Monticello 24 and Foreston 20.

Madison's place-winners were Charles Dixon second in the long jump (19' 3/4") and 60 yard dash (6:07). Troy Butler fourth in the triple jump (40' 3") and Keith Edwards fifth in the 600 yard dash (22:9).

Madison will begin its outdoor season March 12 at O'Fallon.

Hospital Notes

Patients admitted to St. Elizabeth Medical Center include:

Thursday, Feb. 28 — Florence Eleopoulos, Jerry Ritchie, both of Granite City; Mabel Glenville; Madison; Charles Suddeth; Paula Whitten, both of Venice; Denise Viviano, Collinsville; Frances Phelps, Caseyville.

Friday, Feb. 29 — Dayton Corey, Evelyn Reyes and Sandra Amel, all of Granite City.

ARREST DURING SNOW

Gregory Porro, 26, of 1917 Edwardsville Road, was arrested at 10:15 p.m. Friday at Nameoki Road and Lindell Boulevard for reckless driving and at 10:28 p.m. Friday he was again arrested, for driving too fast for traffic conditions at Nameoki and Edwardsville roads, where his car allegedly knocked down a traffic control sign. It was snowing at the time. He was later released on $35 bail.

News notes

The new daily lottery game had gross sales of over $1 million in its first week and had only a slight negative impact on the regular lottery, resulting in a grand total of $2.1 million in gross sales for the week. Gov. James Thompson has said he may end the state lottery unless its volume improves. In the fiscal year that ended June 30, 1979, the lottery paid $28,919,646 in prizes and paid $33,626,936 in the state treasury. Gross sales were $68,028,312, down from $82,992,895 in the previous year.

Christopher King of Grigsby Junior High topped all regional entries by eighth grade in the 1979-80 National Week competition this year. He is receiving a trophy today.

HOSPICE ON TV

Hospice of Madison County will be featured on the Clif St. James noonday show Wednesday at 11:30 a.m. on Channel Five, St. Louis. St. James will interview patients, families and those who have cared for and lost loved ones, a spokesman said. Several nurses and Dr. Shabbir Sadfar, founder and medical director of the local hospice, will appear on the show.

MARYVILLE ACCIDENT

Terrance W. Hartley, of Edwardsville, was arrested for transportation of an open beer can following an accident at Maryville Road and Terminal Avenue at 6:26 p.m. Saturday. Northbound on Maryville, he hit a guard rail, crossed over to the corner of Terminal Avenue and struck a fence, it was alleged.

REVOLVER TAKEN

Joe Palmer, 928 W. Madison St., discovered that between 1 p.m. and 5:45 p.m. Sunday his home had been entered. A .38 caliber revolver was taken. Several copies of national papers were found thrown on the bed. Forced entry was made to the residence.

St. Pat's Run

ST. LOUIS — Runners wearing the green will be led by St. Patrick's Day parade runners on their own way by running through the streets of St. Louis in the second annual St. Patrick's Day Parade Run. The race, open to all runners, begins at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, March 15, at Market and 8th Streets near Kiener Plaza (Broadway & Market) and follows the five-mile parade route finishing at The Old Courthouse. Last year's race set a record for St. Louis with more than 1100 runners. For further race information, those interested may contact John L. Sullivan, race chairman, at (314) 241-1242.

Wrestlers fall on hard luck

GRANITE CITY (III.) PRESS-RECORD, Monday, March 3, 1980 — 17

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record
CHAMPAIGN — Bill Schmitt was a busy man here Saturday night.
As chairman of the Illinois State High School Association Wrestling Advisory Committee, Schmitt had several duties to perform at the championship session of the IHSAA State Wrestling Finals at the Assembly Hall. He handed out medals to the place winners of the various weight divisions in both Class A (small school) and Class AA (large school).
But his job wasn't as happy as he had hoped. Schmitt's other job is head wrestling coach at Granite City South. And he was able to place the red-white-and-blue ribbons around only one Granite City wrestler after the city had sent a contingent of 11 to the finals (six from North High and five from South).

"It was a very disappointing tournament," said Schmitt in between awards ceremonies. "It's enjoyable to hand out these awards. But it's even better to be able to give them to your own kids."

That one Granite wrestler was South's junior 145 pounder Dean Perkins, who captured third place. He was the only place-getter from Granite City and one of only four from this area.

Besides Perkins, other area grapplers to place were Cahokia's Kevin Bement (fourth at 145) and Belleville West's duo of 119-pounder Dean Harris (fifth) and 185-pounder Dan Hemmer (sixth).

As a team, West led the area group with a sixth place finish and a total of 40 points. South finished with 23 points. North had 9½.

Perkins was one of two South grapplers to make a return trip to the State Finals. Scott Polson, who finished sixth at 167 last season, also qualified. He won his first round bout, but lost in the quarterfinals (see related story). Saturday, Polson made a quick exit as he lost a narrow 7-4 decision to Mike Flindaca of Chicago St. Patrick in a wrestlingback.

Polson, despite a painful injury that has required his left shoulder to be bandaged much of the season, could easily have won his bout. A late take-down by Flindaca broke a tie and a last-minute reversal iced the victory.

Polson's fate was frustratingly suffered by almost every Granite City wrestler at the tournament.

"I've never seen so many one and two point losses," said North coach Walt Whitaker. "It's frustrating. Heck, we (North) had two of the best kids in the tournament (Kevin Shemwell and Bob Kirgan) and they lose close bouts and have to sit in the stands and watch." Kirgan lost a preliminary round bout, but did not have a chance at a wrestlingback attempt since his prelim opponent did not advance far enough in later action.

Shemwell suffered a similar fate as Kirgan in the first round, but came back to win a wrestlingback Friday evening (see related story). Saturday, however, was another study in frustration for the North senior. He lost a heart-breaking 8-6 decision to Steve Bolson of Oak Forest in a consolation bracket bout. It was clearly a bout Shemwell could have as easily won as lost. "It's mainly a matter of luck with about the same amount of anxiety get together," said Whitaker. "But the kids from northern Illinois are more used to being in close matches than we are. There's better competition up there."

Ah yes, just as was the case at last year's State Finals, the Southern Illinois coaches were complaining about the lack of strong competition day in and day out. But just last season, there's not much that can be done about it.

"The kids up there are used to winning by one or two points all the time," said Whitaker. "But down south, we only have about three or four tough teams to wrestle. The rest of the time our guys are usually winning by pins or superior decisions."

Perhaps the most frustrated of all the Granite Cityans at the Finals was North 112-pounder Jerry Miller. The scrappy junior, who advanced to state last season at 98 pounds, won a close-call with Buffalo Grove's Mark Pritikin 2-1 in the first round Friday, but lost in the evening quarterfinals.

Saturday morning, Miller took Sam Caspio to the ultimate by dropping an overtime 9-7 decision. Miller had a lead on Caspio but suffered a late take-down to send it into overtime. "Jerry had the thing won in regulation," said Whitaker. "But that's just the way things went in the whole tournament."

DEAN PERKINS of Granite South is lifted off his feet Saturday afternoon by Chicago Dunbar's Darrell Gholer during semifinal action in the 145-pound class at the Illinois State Finals in the University of Illinois Assembly Hall in Champaign.

Perkins topples old friend for 3rd place

CHAMPAIGN — It was like old-time-week.

There they were, warming up for the 145 pound third place bout at the Illinois Class AA State Wrestling Finals at the Assembly Hall. Two old friends.

After two grueling days of wrestling that involved 24 grapplers from all over the state, it had ironically come down to Dean Perkins of Granite City South against Kevin Bement of Cahokia for third place.

Perkins, just like the four other times the two met each other this season, defeated Bement. And just like the first four, this one was hard to get.

Perkins fought back from a 3-0 deficit in the second period to take a 5-3 victory and his second straight finish at 145 pounds.

Addison Trail's 62 points won the Class AA team championship, edging out Proviso East and Moline which finished with 61 and 58 points respectively. Savanna repeated as Class A team champ, outdistancing the field with a whopping 101½ points (see related stories).

Last season as a sophomore, Perkins came out of nowhere to take third. No one really expected him to get to the championship bout anyway, since his semifinal opponent was East Leyden's powerful Jim Farina, now a regular for Iowa State. But this season was different.

Perkins advanced to the State Finals undefeated and favored to win the 145 pound division. But, just like last season, the semifinal match Saturday afternoon was his downfall.

Perkins lost a heart-breaking 9-8 decision to Darryl Gholer of Chicago Dunbar after leading 3-4 with 30 seconds remaining in the bout. Gholer got an escape with 27 seconds left and a three-point near-fall with 13 seconds left to upset Perkins.

But in the semifinal wrestlingback, Perkins was able to cling to a 2-1 win over Bob Bates of Glenbard North and advance to his last bout of the season against his old friend Bement.

"We're pretty good friends, all right," said Perkins. "Heck, you wrestle a guy as much as we wrestle each other, you get to know him pretty well."

To evidence that statement, one only had to look at the two in the stands Friday and Saturday — before they even knew they would be wrestling each other. They sat by each other, joking. They stuck together almost as if they were teammates at times.

But when the ref blew (Continued on Page 19).

Feb. 29 busy day for Granite's grapplers

CHAMPAIGN — Friday, Feb. 29. It comes only once every four years. Leap Year Day.

It won't go down as one of the most productive days in the history of the Illinois State Wrestling Tournament for Granite City High School grapplers, but it could go down as one of the busiest. Of the 11 wrestlers Granite City's two high schools advanced to the finals, five registered wins Friday.

Granite winners were Mike Robinson of North in the 96-pound preliminaries, Kevin Shemwell of North in the 132-pound wrestlingback, Gerald Miller of North in the 112 pound first round, South's Scott Polson in the 167 pound first round and Dan Perkins of South twice, once in the first round at 145 pounds and again in the quarterfinals.

At the end of the first day of competition, South was in a tie for eleventh place with Buffalo Grove with 16 points. Granite North father down the list with 9½ points, tied with Palatine Fremd.

South's Perkins, last year's third place finisher at 145, appeared to be this area's lone hope for an individual championship. He edged out Carey Phelps of Joliet West 2-1 in the first round and then walloped Reginald Wilson of Chicago Heights Bloom Trail 20-1 in the quarterfinals. He advanced to Saturday afternoon's semifinals and assured himself of at least a fourth-place finish.

Polson wasn't so fortunate, however. After beating Deerfield's Steve Self 7-4 in an emotional first round overtime bout, lost to John Major of Oak Lawn 12-4 in the quarterfinal round.

South knocks off Cahokia

By KEVIN ALLEN

GRANITE CITY — We expected it before the season began. We looked for it even after the losses began outnumbering the wins. We saw occasional flashes. We knew the potential was there.

And finally, after all the anticipation. Finally after all the expectations. Finally, after all the occasional inspiration. Finally, we got it. We knew there was a better basketball team lurking somewhere behind what we saw from Granite City South. And Saturday against Cahokia, one of the area's better teams, in the Warriors' last regular season game, we saw that team.

The Warriors won 58-54 in classic last-minute style, with the emphasis on style. "I really thought we played like we could have all year," intelligently, lot of intensity... just a good team effort... seniors proved they were all good players."

That's all we really ever expected. Play like Warrior Kevin Greene driving fearlessly to the basket. Scoring, drawing the foul.

Like South's Les Heubner looking for the 20-footer, and taking it if it was there, but passing off if it wasn't.

Like Jamie Blasingame following a shot, grabbing a rebound, then laying it smoothly off the glass. Like John Vrenick scrapping loose a turnover. Breaking alone for the basket. Concentrating. Concentrating. Laying it up and through.

The Warriors trailed by three points after the first quarter, and we thought we were seeing the beginning of the usual gradual fade. But instead, the second quarter was an improvement.

Cahokia was machine-like. Its passing flawless. The Comanches dared South to over-commit itself, to spread its 1-3-1 zone too thin. To slip up once, and see how quick it could happen. Lean too far, and zap. Two points.

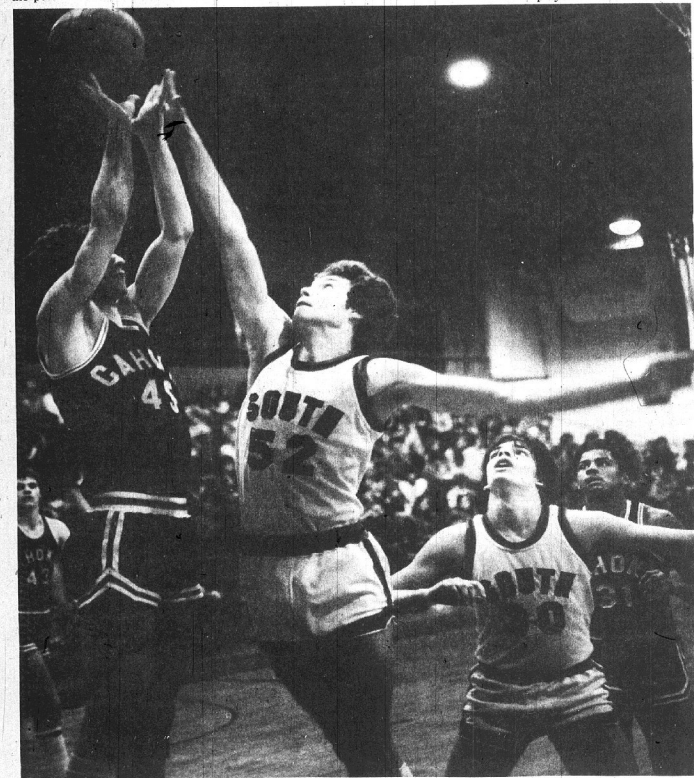

But it never happened. And still no South collapse. The South gym was alive like few times this season.

Then four minutes of four-quarter inspiration equally rare. The Warriors were forcing the methodical Comanches to play wildly. Ten points ahead with three minutes to play. There was genuine enthusiasm on the South bench.

It carried them home. Despite Cahokia's regained composure that allowed it to pull within two points with nine seconds left, we knew we were watching a winner. Like Jamie Blasingame standing at the free throw line flanked by two lone Comanches under the net. One second showed on the clock, and Blasingame coolly locked it up, 58-54.

"We had a chance to bury them after that little stretch late in the game," Warrior assistant coach Mike Harrison commented. "But they..."

Yeah, but we won. That's the point. Detering said. Effortlessly.

ONE-ON-ONE. Granite City South's Bill Skinner (52) goes up to defend against a shot by Cahokia's Collins Saturday night at home in the Warriors' 58-54 win. The loss knocked Cahokia out of a chance to tie Edwardsville for the Gateway Area Conference championship.

Madison comeback edges Venice

By KEVIN ALLEN
of the Press-Record
DUPO — He was an unlikely looking hero. But there he was, all five feet eight inches, 140 pounds, Kerwin Stanley was carried out of the Dupo gym on the shoulders of the Madison Trojans.

He earned his spot up there above his teammates by pouncing on a loose ball with two seconds left in a one-point game. His two free throws that followed made it certain.

The Madison Trojans won the Dupo regional tournament, 70-67, Friday over the Venice Red Devils. And Kerwin Stanley got a free ride to the locker room.

"That was for the effort," Stanley's teammate Tyrone

Echols said, offering the little guard a congratulatory hand. "That was for the effort the whole game."

But it was the last four minutes of that effort that was the difference for the champion Trojans. From ten points down early in the fourth quarter, to its first lead of the game with 3:01 left to play, to the three-point, last-second victory, Madison, in the words of assistant coach Dave Hodges, was on the court for three-and-a-half quarters, but played four minutes of ball.

"What beat 'em? What beat 'em?" Trojan coach Larry Graham asked his team assembled in Dupo's cramped attic clubhouse.

"The pressure's what beat 'em. What beat 'em was the turnovers."

Two floors below, Venice coach Ken Perkins sat alone silently in much roomier facilities. "Their pressure killed us," he said. "In the last five minutes it was just strength against strength."

"We've only had one kid who has been here before. But the've (Madison) all been here. All of a sudden things changed around in a hurry."

Suddenly, Like when Madison's Kerry Guest stripped Red Devil Kenny Roberts with 3:34 left in the game, flipping it downcourt to a streaking Pat Hatter who slammed it home.

Venice's early period ten-point lead was cut to 30-56. Suddenly, Like on the very next play when Madison's Morris Hughes forced a Red Devil turnover, and again found Hatter alone under the Trojan basket.

The lead was down to only one point.

When Hatter got the ball and stuffed it, that killed us," Perkins said.

Finally, with 3:01 left to play, Madison's Tyrone Echols scored from the corner, giving the Trojans their first lead of the night. A lead they held the rest of the way.

Despite the considerable efforts of the Red Devils, Madison held simply to its newly-gained advantage. One point was the difference when Venice's Donald Gardner pulled down a rebound with 14 seconds left, giving the Red Devils a chance to recapture the lead.

Donald wheeled and fired the ball upcourt to his brother Archie. But the brotherly transaction was never completed.

"We did exactly what we wanted to do," Perkins said. "We had beat them with outlet passes all night. It really wasn't Archie's fault. There's no one we'd rather have handle the ball. But he didn't handle it. It was just do or die."

The ball eluded Archie's grasp. He caught up with it just before it went out of bounds, but he flipped it desperately into the hands of the eventual hero, Kerwin Stanley.

For the Red Devils to be so close was probably the biggest surprise of the night. And for them to have led the Trojans for nearly the entire game was, well, almost unthinkable.

"I don't see how we matched up with them as well as we did," Perkins admitted. "If you look at it man for man it doesn't seem like we should have been in the game. But when you look at the team effort I guess we had a little more drive than they did."

"At least until the last four minutes."

"They (Venice) played an incredible game," Graham said. "Their teamwork was incredible. I can't say enough about Venice."

From the start, the Red Devils used a fast break offense to beat Madison's press. The tactic allowed Venice to take a 19-16 lead after the first quarter.

Madison's defense held its own, though, and Trojans Pat Hatter and Greg Lucas were formidably enough offensively to counter the fast-breaking Red Devils. At the half it was a 37-35 lead.

In the third quarter Venice became more deliberate, almost methodical. The Red Devils managed to set up the Gardner brothers inside continually. Meanwhile, Madison's scoring attack went cold, and Venice pulled away to a 51-43 lead at the end of the period.

Ah, but finally it came down to the last four minutes. It was a situation in which Madison held a decided advantage.

"It was strength for strength," Perkins said. Madison's strong pressure defense flexed its muscle.

That's why, after all, they carried Stanley, the quick little guard, shoulder high.

Sizzlin' Steelers rip nets—and Roxana, too

By ROBERT REIGH
For the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — The Granite City North Steelers broke a two month losing streak Friday night by beating the Roxana Shells 78-51 at North.

After going 0-for-January, the Steelers took advantage of the leap year day game to prevent going 0-for-February. The Steelers had not won a game since sweeping four in a row to win the Mater Dei Christmas tourney.

"Ohh, this feels so good," said North's Dennis Page after the game. The rest of his teammates whooped it up in the lockerroom and North coach Bill Ohlendorf, slapped a lot of backs as the Steelers finally had reason to celebrate after a game. "This is career victory number 29," Ohlendorf said of his high school basketball coaching record. "I've been waiting for three more since December. Now, maybe we can do it in the regionals."

It was obvious from the start of Friday night's contest that the Steelers would win their fifth game of the year. The Shells were one club that were as short as the Steelers and would not be a problem for North under the boards.

Sensing victory before a home crowd for their last home game of the season the Steelers appeared anxious to blow the game wide open.

They were too anxious, however, and the result was an uncharacteristically fast-paced offense by the Steelers which was marked by poor shooting and turnovers. Despite North being an obviously superior team, the Steelers only led by 30-23 at the half.

Even Page looked off early in the game, missing his first five shots and sinking just three of 11 field goal shots during the first half.

"We had problems with ourselves the first half," Ohlendorf said. "We got a little anxious and didn't get coordinated as nicely as we would have liked."

The second half was another story, though, as the Steelers got back to their controlled offense and made the game a rout.

Page got hot and scored 14 third quarter points as North took a 50-31 lead at the end of the period.

The last quarter was just a lot of fun for the Steelers. After going up by 30, Ohlendorf began to clear his bench and everybody got a chance to play.

Page and forward Mike Robertson were the leading scorers for the Steelers, as usual. Page scored 24 and Robertson had 21 points. But the real surprise was Bob Batey who normally combines his game mostly to defense. Batey scored 14 points in his best offensive showing of the year.

North pretty much did what it wanted to against the Shells. In the third quarter, the Steelers scored mostly from the outside, but in the final period they moved to an inside attack quite successfully.

Page and forward Mike Robertson were the leading scorers for the Steelers, as usual. Page scored 24 and Robertson had 21 points. But the real surprise was Bob Batey who normally combines his game mostly to defense. Batey scored 14 points in his best offensive showing of the year.

Last Page leads Steelers

Granite City North senior guard Dennis Page played his last basketball game in the North gym Friday night and finished it as he had so many other games. He was the leading scorer in the contest with 24 points.

Throughout the game people in the stands kept asking about Page. "How many points does Page have now? "Has he made it to 20 points yet?" So when the game ended it wasn't surprising when yet another fan approached a reporter and asked him if he knew how many points Page had scored.

"Twenty-four, huh," the man had said. "And how many did Robertson (Mike) have. Twenty-one.

Well, I'll be darned. I didn't think Dennis had that many. I'm his father you see."

Satch Page has seen his son score a lot of points for the Steelers over the years.

"I've never missed a game he played in," Satch said. "I've never missed a game he played in."

Lovejoy downed by Supreme Court

DUPO — Lovejoy High School of Brooklyn saw its last hopes of appealing the Class A regional here beaten when the Illinois High School Association, which had suspended it from postseason play for violation of a rule forbidding a team from playing in more than two invitational tournaments a season, got a favorable ruling Thursday evening from the Illinois Supreme Court.

Lovejoy was suspended earlier this season and had appealed the ruling. But after the IHSA stood firm, Lovejoy got a temporary restraining order against the association, but lost a hearing Tuesday at the Madison County Courthouse in Edwardsville.

Lovejoy appealed the case to the 5th District Illinois Court of appeals in Mount Vernon and got a favorable ruling there. However, the

IHSA got the matter to the State Supreme Court and had a reversal in less than an hour.

Youth volleyball

The YMCA is announcing open registration for its brand-new youth volleyball program.

This program is designed to teach basic and advanced skills to youngsters in the junior high and senior high schools, grades 7-12.

Cost of the program, which begins Tuesday, March 25, and ends Saturday, May 31, is $5 for members and $10 for non-members. Registrations for the first two overtimes, but ends on Saturday, April 5.

Madison rolls to win

By KEVIN ALLEN
of the Press-Record
DUPO — The Madison Trojans advanced to the finals of the Dupo regional, Thursday night with a 67-50 win over East St. Louis Assumption.

Assumption's Pioneers, playing without the services of Mansel Carter and Gerald Stevenson, the team's leading scorers, nevertheless managed to make Madison's advancement to Friday's championship game more than a mere tune-up.

Assumption's Acie Fields sparked the Pioneers for the first two quarters and a half, despite, or maybe in spite of the conspicuous absence.

Fields was in the same roll he had filled for the final three games of Assumption's season. Since he's 6-8 center Carter and 6-6 forward Stevenson were suspended for disciplinary reasons.

For the first half, at least, the understudy turned star in more than adequately.

But in the second half luck and the relentless Madison defense stole the show.

"We got some breaks, that's for sure," Madison coach Larry Graham said. "But once we got rolling we were okay."

That would have been about five minutes into the third quarter. Madison led 35-34 with 3:49 left in the period, but by the time the buzzer ended the quarter the Trojans had rolled to a 45-34 lead.

In the quarter the Pioneers missed a total of nine field goals, mostly of the layup variety. Meanwhile, Madison tacked on ten unanswered points in the last three minutes.

"We got cold. What else can I say," Pioneer coach Lou Gregory said of the dry spell. "We got excellent Flyer turnovers to take an 82-79 lead in the third. Chuck Williams led Alton with 29 points, while James Douglas paced the Flyers with 22.

In other prep action Friday, Lebanon held off Weslin (Trenton) 73-67 in the championship game of the Greenville Class A Regional and will meet Madison Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the first round of the Vandalia Sectional. Other teams entered at Vandalia are Bunker Hill and Vandalia.

Other Friday results: Collinsville 71, Belleville East 50; Cahokia 72, Belleville West 42; Mount Vernon 63, Marion 51; Edwardsville 94, Triad 36; Olney 65, Centralia 36; Herrin 74, W. Frankfort 63. Saturday results: Highland 54, Mascoutah 56; Quincy 76, East St. Louis 71.

scoring drought, though, the Pioneers, mainly through the efforts of Fields, appeared to present Madison an obstacle to its advancement.

"They did a good job on the press," Graham said. "They got the ball in the middle and scored some baskets."

In the middle is where Fields operated. "Acie did all an individual could," Graham said. "He made it go when we were scoring. He's always provided us with that leadership."

The Fields-led Pioneers struggled to a 16-16 tie after the first quarter, then held on to stay within five points at the half.

They pared that lead to only one point about three minutes into the second half, but then suddenly it stopped.

"Madison is a very explosive team," Gregory said of the Trojans' quick dominance. "They came down about three or four times before we even got the ball. It's easy to get down after that."

"We just couldn't stay with them once Hughes became more active," Gregory said. Before the devastating shots. You couldn't argue with the selection. But it's a funny game, they don't count 'em unless they go in."

In the fourth quarter the Pioneer's shooting improved. But five turnovers and three fouls slowed that improvement considerably.

Assumption's shooting improved. But five turnovers and three fouls slowed that improvement considerably.

missed seeing any of my boys play in a game since they were in the sixth grade. Both home and away. That will give you an idea of how many basketball games I've seen."

Dennis is the fourth and last Page brother to play for the Steelers. Before Dennis, there was Daryl, Dave and Dale.

"Dennis is the best shooter of them all," Coach says. "I've really enjoyed watching him play."

whether he will be playing college ball next year. A straight-A student, Page is more interested in finding a school with a good engineering program where he can play basketball.

Before he takes off for college, however, Page will still be seen shooting baskets in Granite City.

"I'll be out there shooting baskets on the school yards," he said. "Like I always did."

Feb. 29

Polson were the only two of South's five wrestlers to win Friday, their championship round wins were enough to propel the Warriors near the top of the team standings.

For North, Robinson started out the day on a bright note for Coach Walt Whitaker's Steelers. He gained an early-morning preliminary round decision over Brian Johnson of Chicago Bogan 15-7. But in the first round later on, he (Robinson) was edged by Ernie Christmas of Midlothian Bremen 8-4. Robinson trailed only 5-4 late in that match, but Christmas was awarded three points for a near-fall with less than a minute remaining to ice away the victory for him and send Robinson packing.

Shenwell, the Sectional champion at 132 pounds, was beaten in the first round by Jim Laver of Crystal Lake South 6-4. Shenwell, who came out of a snarl of talented 132-pounders from this area, was the victim of a late take-down by Laver.

North's Miller, who advanced to the finals last season as a 98-pounder, won his first round 112 bout over Mark Pritikin of Buffalo Grove by a whopping 18-1 score. Obviously, Miller was never in danger, but North Coach Whitaker said he felt fortunate to advance a wrestler, no matter by what margin. "Jerry won pretty easy," he said. "But, I'll tell you, this sport is so emotional, that anything might have happened, especially at this level."

Miller came close two times to pinning Pritikin, but could not hold on, instead, adding up three point near-falls.

The rest of the Granite City contingent fared not so well. Randy Pohanaz of South did register a 5-3 preliminary round victory of the day.

DeJard of Joliet West 12-6 in a bout that was actually closer than the score would indicate. Lupardus trailed only 7-6 late and had opportunities to go ahead with a take-down, but let the bout slip away.

Greg Garland of South and Steve Smith of North each saw their seasons come to a sudden halt in the preliminary round. Garland lost a narrow 7-6 decision to Rick Pohanz of Geneseo Darnall at 112 pounds and Smith was pinned at the 56 second mark of his 105 pound bout. Neither Pohanaz or Rodriguez advanced far enough in later rounds for Garland or Smith to wrestle-back.

South's Rich James at 185 pounds, lost to Robert Ratliff of Chicago Hirsch in a narrow 4-2 decision. James gave up a third period take-down to Ratliff and could not come back. However, Ratliff could not advance from his first round bout later on, this not allowing James to wrestle-back.

North's Tracy Patton, the 119-pound sectional runner-up, fell to Dan Kaminski of New Lenox (Lincoln-Way) in a high scoring heart-breaker. Patton led several times in the bout, but came up on the shot of a 19-14 decision.

Warriors clip Eagles

BETHALTO — The Granite City South boys basketball team handed head coach Don Deterding his 300th career coaching victory here Friday night with a 68-57 win over Civic Memorial of Bethalto.

Deterding, who came to Granite City in 1968 from Effingham High School, has guided the Warriors to one state tournament appearance in 1972, saw his team lead at every quarter stop against Bethalto.

South, a prohibitive favorite going into the game, found a fired-up team of Eagles waiting for it. The Warriors led by only two, 15-13, at the end of the first quarter.

Perkins

the whistle to begin the bout, it was all business.

The two began the bout with the kind of tentativeness that comes with mutual respect for the other. It was scoreless after the first period, even though Perkins came close a couple of times to a take-down.

But it was Bement who got the first points of the match. Startling in the down position, he escaped Perkins and took him down, grabbing a 3-0 lead.

In the waning seconds of the period, Perkins took Bement down, getting him to within one point. As the buzzer sounded, the South junior was awarded two points for a near-fall and took a 4-3 lead. Perkins got his final point with a third period escape.

Perkins ended the season with a 41-1 record, while Bement finished 41-6-0. One loss came Friday in the first round to eventual champion Lionel Keyes of Chicago Harlem.

A good friend of his gave him the other five.
